

HUGHES FACES A TUMULTUOUS CROWD

Speaks in Territory No G. O. P. Presidential Nominee Ever Visited

CROWD CHEERS WILSON

Audience Finally Hears Nom- inee's Declaration in Silence and Applauds Him

LEAVES FOR LEXINGTON, KY

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 4.—In the territory in which no Republican presidential nominee ever has visited before Charles E. Hughes tonight faced a tumultuous audience in the Auditorium here. With cheers for Woodrow Wilson ringing again and again in his ears, heckled by questioners and halted often by Democratic sympathizers, the nominee criticized the administration for its policies, argued for a protective tariff and in a reference which the audience took to apply to the enactment of the Adamson bill, asserted that he stood firmly for the arbitration of all industrial disputes.

"I believe there is no grievance with respect to labor," Mr. Hughes said, "that cannot be settled by a fair, candid explanation of the facts. We have in the past had to deal frequently with the opposition of employers to the principle of arbitration. Sometimes they have refused to arbitrate disputes. Public opinion has been against them. I stand here firmly for the principle of arbitrating industrial disputes and I would not surrender to anybody in the country."

"I believe that anything that is right in this country can be settled right. What is our Republican government? What are our free institutions?"

"We have come down the long course of history with the people fighting slowly, slowly, now with defeat and now with victory—for a recognition of the reign of reason instead of the reign of tyranny and force."

"Now then I stand for two things: First, for the principle of fair, impartial, thoro, candid arbitration and second for legislation on facts according to necessities of the case. And I am opposed to being dictated to either in the executive department or congress by any power on earth before the facts are known."

"We have a great country and a great future. But it can only be preserved in one way—that way is the way of all honest, fair investigation and candid treatment. Show me the way that is right and I will take it; but I won't take any way that I do not know anything about."

The audience which had interrupted Mr. Hughes repeatedly in the earlier portion of his speech to cheer for Wilson, heard the nominee's declaration in silence and at its conclusion applauded him.

Tonight's address the second of the day, was delivered before a crowded house. J. Will Taylor, Republican state chairman the first speaker was interrupted time after time by cheers for Wilson. Amid a burst of Wilson cheers he sat down and the second speaker, George N. Tillman, chairman of the meeting stood up. Mr. Tillman was on his feet for ten minutes much of the time vainly trying to make himself heard. He then introduced Mr. Hughes and the audience waited in silence.

"I shall not forget the warmth of the welcome of this vociferous meeting," Mr. Hughes said, and the audience applauded. He added that what he had to say was to be said "good naturedly" at a time that the American people were taking stock.

"I do not desire in anything I say to express anything but the highest respect for those who do not agree with" he said.

The audience applauded and Mr. Hughes outlined his views on American industry, the test it will face when the war ends and the doctrine of a protective tariff.

He was interrupted frequently by applause and now and then by cheers for Wilson. More applause greeted his reference to labor legislation enacted during his terms as governor of New York.

MEMBERS OF JOINT COMMISSION GUESTS OF SECRETARY LANSING

Hopes that Broad Foundation of Understanding Between Mexico and U. S. Will Govern Future Relations are Expressed at Luncheon.

New York, Sept. 4.—Hopes that a broad foundation of understanding and sympathy between Mexico and the United States will govern future relations were expressed here today by both American and Mexican members of the joint commission that will meet at New London, Conn., on Wednesday to begin its discussion of border disturbances.

The six commissioners were the guests of Secretary of State Lansing at luncheon here. Informal addresses were delivered by Mr. Lansing and Franklin K. Lane, secretary of interior who heads the American commission, while Luis Cabrera chairman of the Mexican commission and Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador-designate spoke in reply.

Rights of Americans in Mexico both personal and economic was the only specific point mentioned by Mr. Lansing and Mr. Lane in outlining the probable nature of the conference.

"It is thru the consideration of such subjects that the seeds of future controversy can be destroyed," Secretary Lansing said, "and entire confidence restored so that the Mexican government and people may build on the ruins of war and disorder a new and more lasting prosperity than the republic has ever known."

Speaking in response Mr. Cabrera declared himself and his assistants to be inspired by the strongest purpose to co-operate with the American commissioners in order to attain their common end, that is, to lay the foundation of a lasting peace between the United States and Mexico.

The commissioners both American and Mexican will sail for New London tomorrow on the presidential yacht Mayflower.

Secretary and Mrs. Lansing left here this afternoon for Washington.

WAVERLY PICNIC TODAY

The fourth annual chicken fry given by the ladies of the M. E. church at Waverly will be held today. Dinner will be served at noon and the afternoon program will be opened with a baby show. Then after a musical number by Clarence Wemple there will be addresses by Hugh Green and Carl E. Robinson. A violin selection will be given by Alfred Hughes and a reading by Mr. Green, after which there will be athletic sports and an automobile contest. In the evening there will be a concert by the Waverly band. Generous prizes have been offered for the athletic contests and for the best cake and bread.

MONDAY IN CONGRESS

Senate
Met at 11 a. m.
Resumed debate on emergency revenue bill.
Conference of leaders set adjournment of congress for Wednesday.
Adopted conference report on workmen's compensation bill.
House
Met at noon.
Appointed conferees in general deficiency bill.
Considered bills on unanimous consent calendar.

protecting American industry."

"The man who can do it, is Woodrow Wilson," shouted a man from the balcony. A wave of hand-clapping checked the nominee.

"There would not be much disposition to clap," Mr. Hughes said, smiling, as the applause died down. "In this country if that doctrine got headway very long."

Mr. Hughes declared that "no body would put over anything for private gain at the public expense," in tariff if he could help it and was given prolonged applause. The nominee then assailed the administration for its policy toward Mexico. He outlined its attitude toward Huerta, declaring that the question was not recognition but protecting American rights.

"You would have recognized that assassin," he shouted a man from the audience, "wouldn't you?"

"Now I didn't say that," Mr. Hughes began to reply. The rest of his answer was lost in the tumult which followed.

"What would you have done," shouted another man as the noise subsided.

"I would have protected American rights," the nominee shouted quickly pointing his finger at the questioner. The audience rose to its feet and applauded loudly.

It was the last of the heckling, although there were two or three more outbursts of cheering for Wilson. The rest of Mr. Hughes' speech was devoted to a discussion of efficiency of government.

The nominee's address tonight ended his political activities of the day. He declined to review the Tennessee National Guard on the ground that he had no right to review federalized state troops. A proposal that he speak at the Labor Day celebration was dismissed when he was advised that labor leaders arranging it had not sent him a formal invitation and that if he spoke he would be restricted to a topic of non-political nature.

Mr. Hughes left late today for Lexington, Ky.

CONGRESS WINDING UP AFFAIRS FOR SESSION

PLANS TO ADJOURN EITHER WEDNESDAY OR THURSDAY

Republican Leaders in Senate Give Assurances Emergency Revenue Bill Can be Passed Today—House Leaders Predict Conference Report Will be Ready Wednesday.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Congress is winding up its affairs for the session and planning to adjourn either Wednesday or Thursday. Republican leaders in the senate gave assurances tonight that the emergency revenue bill, last of the big measures on the administration program could be passed tomorrow and house leaders predicted that a conference report on amendments would be ready for disposition in both houses some time Wednesday.

Altho Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee had hoped to pass the revenue bill tonight he said that there still was a good prospect of adjournment Wednesday despite the fact that another day will have to be devoted to the measure. Democratic leaders prepared a joint resolution for adjournment Wednesday evening at six o'clock and Majority Leader Kitchin is planning to submit it in the house for passage tomorrow if word comes from the senate that business can be concluded by that time. An effort to pass the revenue bill tonight was blocked by Republicans who said they would yield for a final vote tomorrow. Senator Owen asserted that they were using the revenue bill to filibuster against his corrupt practices bill for which he proposes to make one more fight. Administration senators said there was no doubt that he would be voted down. Senator Underwood today made his fight against the administration plan to impose increased tariff duties on dyestuffs after the European war in order to encourage home manufacturing. Senator Underwood declared the proposal was the embodiment of the protective tariff principle. Senators Stone and Hughes defended the proposal as certain to relieve American manufacturers from the grip of a foreign monopoly. The senate sustained the administration plan.

Hundreds of people went to Nichols Park Labor Day to the burgo and picnic given by the rural carriers and mail clerks of the local postoffice. The many people went to Beardstown on the Labor Day excursion and many others visited various cities in this vicinity many Jacksonville people remained at home and spent the day at Nichols Park. In addition to Jacksonville people there were many country people present.

Much of the credit for the success of the burgo is due to the various committees in charge which have been working for several weeks in preparation for the event.

There were several hundred gallons of delicious burgo soup and the tables were well patronized during the afternoon and evening. The chief soup maker was Richard Leake with Alfred Leake, W. A. Mason and Henry Harold as assistants.

The purchasing committee was composed of T. L. Wiseman, Herman Ellis and C. S. Richards.

Arrangements—A. Leake, E. Elmore, S. W. Carly, J. T. Magner and C. L. Fuller.

Tables and serving—J. T. Kearns, J. B. Siebert, E. D. Herold, O. I. Milburn, A. A. Jacobs, R. Hirschberger, Beardstown, Fred Gust, Frank Bourne, A. B. Kent, L. B. Turner.

Finance—C. S. Richards, A. L. Leake, H. Ellis.

During the afternoon and evening dancing was indulged in the pavilion and the day was one of great enjoyment to many residents of the city and county.

LAFAYETTE MASS. UNVEILED.
Fall River, Mass., Sept. 4.—Fall River today paid eloquent tribute to the memory of Count de Lafayette by the unveiling of a heroic equestrian statue of the famous French patriot and friend of America in the Revolution, erected here thru the donations of the thousands of French Americans resident in this city and vicinity. The unveiling took place in a new city park, which has been given the name of Lafayette. The day's program was ushered in at an early hour this morning by a salute of 21 guns from naval vessels in the harbor. Later in the forenoon there was a big military and civic parade. The speakers at the unveiling ceremonies included Ambassador Jusserand, Governor McCall and Senator Lodge.

It is claimed that the Chinese attacked the Japanese while the Japanese were advancing to mediate between the Chinese and the Mongolians.

M. E. CONFERENCE 'BEGINS IN SPRINGFIELD THIS WEEK

Rev. F. B. Madden May Serve in Bishops' Cabinet in Place of Dr. Van Cleave—Talk About Superintendency of Decatur District.

At the session of the Methodist conference in Springfield this week, Rev. F. B. Madden, pastor of Grace church of this city, will probably serve as a member of the bishops' cabinet. Mr. Madden has been asked to fill this position by Rev. Dr. J. W. Van Cleave, superintendent of the Decatur district. Some time ago Dr. Van Cleave was appointed treasurer of the committee on finances, the appointment coming thru the general conference. He has been filling the duties of that position and also serving as district superintendent until the session of the conference and as a result of overwork is suffering from a break down. He therefore wrote to Rev. Mr. Madden, asking him to serve as a member of the cabinet. Mr. Madden is well qualified for this work because of his experience as a superintendent and as secretary of the conference.

One of the most important places to be filled at the conference will be in the naming of successor to Dr. Van Cleave. Various ministers have been mentioned in the list of possible candidates, among them Rev. G. W. Flagg of this city, and Rev. W. S. Phillips, so well known here and now located at Cerra Gordo, Rev. Flagg, it is understood, thinks that the time has come for him to leave Jacksonville, tho he has had a pleasant and successful pastorate for four years at Centenary M. E. church. It will be remembered that a number of changes in superintendents occurred during the past year. Rev. Preston Wood, superintendent of the Springfield district died and Dr. A. C. Piersel was appointed for successor by Bishop McDowell. In the Danville district Dr. W. N. Tobie, who resigned because of serious illness, was succeeded by Rev. W. D. Fairchild thru the bishop's appointment. Rev. Mr. Tobie, since his transfer on account of illness, is said to be much improved in health and may return to the conference in a superannuated relationship.

FIRST REGIMENT IN CAMP
AT SPRINGFIELD
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 4.—The last two battalions of the First Infantry regiment, I. N. G., arrived at Camp Lincoln here this morning. The entire regiment of 1,000 men is now in camp. The men spent the day in rest, with a dress parade this evening. The second regiment and a battery of artillery are expected here within a few days.

RETURN FROM WEST
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hackett have returned from Denver, where they have spent a number of weeks very pleasantly at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Patterson. While there Mr. Hackett attended the Republican rally addressed by ex-president Taft. It was a very enthusiastic meeting with a large attendance.

WILSON PAYS HOMAGE TO LINCOLN'S MEMORY

ACCEPTS FOR FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CABIN IN WHICH LINCOLN WAS BORN

Speech is Devoted to an Eulogy of the Civil War President—Great Crowd Turns His Visit into a Campaign Event.

Hodgenville, Ky., Sept. 4.—President Wilson came to Kentucky today to pay homage to the memory of Lincoln and avoid politics, but a great crowd gathered from all parts of the state cheered him at every appearance and turned his visit into a campaign event.

The president accepted for the federal government the log cabin in which Lincoln was born in a speech devoted to an eulogy of the Civil War president. Standing on a temporary platform at the foot of a hill topped by a magnificent granite memorial building housing the Lincoln cabin, he praised Lincoln as the embodiment of Democracy.

"We are not worthy to stand here unless we ourselves be in deed and in truth real Democrats and servants of mankind," he said, "ready to give our very lives for the freedom and justice and spiritual exaltation of the great nation which shelters and nurtures us."

The non-political character of the program was emphasized by the mention of the name of Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee by one of the speakers in giving the list of directors.

But as soon as the formal exercises were over politics came to the fore. At the railroad station platform the president stood for nearly an hour shaking hands with men and women who greeted him as "the next president." As his train pulled out the crowd cheered and clapped while he bowed in acknowledgment.

What was said to be one of the largest crowds ever gathered in this part of Kentucky came to Lincoln Farm in special trains and automobiles and on foot. The president and his party were taken from the station to the farm in automobiles. On the way the president stopped and laid a wreath on a statue of Lincoln.

At the farm he walked up a long flight of broad granite stairs lined with thousands of cheering people to the Lincoln Memorial building at top. He examined silently the one room cabin made of rough logs and then wrote his name in the register.

Former Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri, president of the Lincoln Farm association presided at the formal ceremonies. Robert J. Collier, vice-president of the association gave the deed of the gift to the farm to Secretary Baker representing the war department. Senator Williams of Mississippi and General John B. Cassleman of Louisville also delivered speeches.

In introducing the president Mr. Polk spoke of Mr. Wilson as "the successor of Lincoln in the affections of the American people."

President Wilson and Mrs. Wilson with Secretary Baker, Secretary Tumulty, Dr. Grayson, the white house physician left here at 2 o'clock for Washington, where they will arrive at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

COMMISSION ENJOINED FROM ENFORCING RATE ORDERED

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 4.—The state public utilities commission is enjoined from enforcing the terms of an order in the Jacksonville gas and electric case by a decree entered by Judge Creighton in the Sangamon county circuit court today. The Jacksonville company contended that the commission's valuation of its property would make it impossible for the company to earn the seven percent on the investment. The case has been before the commission for two years.

In the application to the court the company maintained that by operating under the rates named by the commission and taking into consideration the commission's valuation of the company's property, it would fail to earn by several thousand dollars the 7 per cent allowed by the commission on its investment. The case will now be tried further in the courts. The company filed a bond of $50,000 pending a hearing of the appeal.

NOTICE TO CHILDREN

It is a matter of great regret to me that it has been necessary to postpone the picnic and burgo planned for tomorrow. The city health warden wrote me a letter strongly advising this course and so in order to be on the safe side and to run no risk of spreading disease, it has been decided to call off the picnic.

Everything had been arranged for the making of 500 gallons of delicious soup and I can assure you that it is as great a disappointment to me as it is to you to be compelled to change the plan. All who have received badges are requested to keep them and I will ask the teachers to hold the ones they were to distribute today. It may be possible that we will be permitted to have the picnic at a little later date.

S. W. Nichols.

HUNDRED PERSONS INJURED WHEN BLEACHER SEATS COLLAPSE

Several Hurt Seriously in Accident at Welsh-White Fight—Crash Comes Before the Larger Part of the Crowd Arrived.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 4.—The collapse of a portion of the bleacher seats at the Welsh-White lightweight championship today precipitated two hundred spectators to the ground and injured a least one hundred, several seriously. At various hospitals here tonight it was stated that all of sixty persons taken here immediately after the accident would recover. The crash came before the larger part of the crowd had arrived. Policemen, firemen and special officers quickly placed the injured in automobiles and comparatively little confusion resulted and the boxing program was not delayed.

Announcement was made that the stands previously had been carefully inspected and that no reason could be ascribed for the collapse of the seats. The commissioner of public safety said that so far as he knew no inspection had been made by the city engineer's office and he added that a thoro investigation would be made to fix the responsibility.

HIG DEMANDS OF TRADE UNIONS.

London, Sept. 4.—The annual meeting of the British Trade Union Congress, which was opened at Birmingham today, promises to be one of the most important in the history of that great organization, which represents the two million organized workmen of the United Kingdom. The extraordinary importance attached to the congress this year arises from the fact that more than half of the 100 or more resolutions included in the agenda deal with problems which arise directly out of the war.

Five resolutions demand the conscription of wealth, and with a view to such conscription the dockers wish the parliamentary committee to press for a census of wealth. The steel smelters have a resolution upon the need for definite action by the government to prevent the economic resources of the British empire being exploited and controlled by possible enemies.

To meet the cost of war, the following proposals will be advanced: Heavier graduated taxation of large incomes, a special tax on land values, graduated taxation of capital, nationalization of railways, mines, shipping, banking, insurance, conscription and wealth.

Other subjects that will come up for consideration and action will include compulsory trade union membership, compulsory eight hour day for all trades, a minimum wage of thirty shillings for all adult workers, and universal State unemployment pay.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS MEET.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 4.—Hundreds of soldiers and sailors who served in the army and navy of the United States during the Spanish-American war and in the Philippine insurrection gathered in this city today for the opening of the thirteenth annual national encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans. The veterans' sister body, the Ladies' Auxiliary, will also hold its annual meeting during the week. The business sessions of the encampment proper will continue three days and will be presided over by Congressman L. C. Dyer of Missouri, the commander-in-chief of the organization. In addition to the usual parade, the encampment program this year provides for a competitive drill, sham battle and maneuvers in Grant Park by two brigades of the United States Veterans' Legion, the military branch of the organization, which was formed early last Spring to "prepare against war."

TO SEND THREE STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS NORTH

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 2.—General Funston said today that three student organizations would be sent north where it is said they will be discharged for school attendance. Those are Battery F., First Illinois Artillery, to Fort Sheridan; Battery B., First Indiana Artillery to Fort Benjamin Harrison; Battery F., First Minnesota Artillery to Fort Snelling.

Entraining of the second regiment of Illinois infantry proceeded this afternoon the final train being directed to depart late today.

WEATHER INDICATIONS AND TEMPERATURES

ANGLO-FRENCH TAKE GERMAN POSITIONS

French Take More Than 5,000 Prisoners North South of the Somme

BRITISH MAKE PROGRESS

Russ Generally the Aggressors on Russian Front North and South of Lutsk

ROUMANIANS ON ADVANTAGE

Keeping up their strong offensive against the Germans north and south of the Somme river in France, the Anglo-French forces have again driven their lines forward and captured important German positions.

South of the Somme the village of Soyecourt and part of the village of Vermandovillers have been captured while seemingly more important still the French have made fresh progress east of the village of Forest which lies one and one half miles southeast of the railroad town of Comblès—a gain which taken with the capture of Guilleumont on Sunday, seemingly outflanks Comblès and apparently renders it untenable. More than 5,000 Germans have been made prisoner north and south during the last two days.

On the British right wing progress is reported northwest of Falemont farm while a German counter attack northwest of Mouquet farm was repulsed. In the Verdun sector Paris reports a fresh gain near Fleury.

Berlin, in admitting the claims of British and French successes in the fighting of Sunday in the Somme region says that battling over the 18 mile front from Beaumont to the Somme was of the greatest ferocity. The Germans here, their ground at Thiepval, north of Pozieres and near Ginchy, but Gillmont village and wood were lost as likewise was Ginchy, but a counter-attack of the Germans won back a portion of the latter town.

Again there is heavy fighting on the front in Russia west and southwest of Lutsk and north of Zborow and near Brezany, in Galicia, with the Russians generally the aggressors. Petrograd controverts the assertion of Berlin that the Russians obtained only local successes near Brezany by the declaration that the Russians won a victory over the Teutons here and took 2,641 prisoners. In the Carpathian region, according to Petrograd, the Russians have captured an entire series of heights and are advanced to the Hungarian frontier.

All along the Transylvania front the Roumanians continue to press their advantage against the Austro-Hungarians. Here they have captured additional towns and now are said to be bombarding the town of Hermannstadt which is second in importance only to Kronstadt. The German and Bulgarian forces are attacking the entire front between Dobrudja and Bulgaria. Near Koenar, Belrin reports, the Roumanians were driven back with the loss of 700 men taken prisoner. In Albania the Italians east of Avlona have taken the villages of Kutai and Brizar and Monte Gradist.

The Germans have surrendered to the British Dar-es-Salaam, Germany's chief seaport in East Africa.

Considerable fighting is in progress in the Austro-Italian theater but without any important changes in terrain having occurred.

Berlin admits the loss of an airship the night of Sept. 2nd. It is probable that this was the Zeppelin which London reported was brought down during the raid on the east coast of England Saturday night.

RIOTING FOLLOWS PARADE

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 4.—Rioting an outgrowth of a strike of street railway trainmen in progress here, followed a Labor Day parade today. The rioters attacked several street cars being operated by strike-breakers in the downtown streets wrecked the cars and beat the trainmen. A dozen persons were arrested on charges of inciting riot and it is estimated that at least fifty persons were injured in the street fighting.

BRIFTHS OUTPOSTS RIVERS

Canton, O., Sept. 4.—Johnny Griffiths of Akron, O., outpointed Joe Rivers of Los Angeles here today in a twelve round bout. Griffiths won by a good margin altho rivers gave him a good argument for the five rounds. After that it was all Griffiths, the Akron man hooking and jabbing Rivers almost at will.

A Veteran Passes On

By the death of H. N. Wheeler a conspicuous figure is removed from Illinois journalism. Mr. Wheeler had a reputation more than state wide and he was on terms of intimacy with some of the oldest of the newspaper owners and editors of the country. It was not only Mr. Wheeler's ability but his courageous spirit which gave him prominence. He was a man of high ideals and broad vision and particularly fearless and vigorous in championing every cause that he espoused. So he came to be an enemy to be feared by those persons who for sinister reasons were shunning publicity. He was a friend, tho to the friendless and the man whose course and cause was right found in him a firm advocate. He was as rugged in principle as he was in speech, and a strong figure left the world of journalism when he answered the final call.

Infantile Paralysis

It is to be regretted that a case of infantile paralysis has been found in Jacksonville and that it has occurred is evidently due to neglect on the part of health officials in Chicago. The child afflicted with the disease was brought here from Chicago Saturday without inspection by Chicago officials. However, there is nothing in the present situation to cause alarm, as local health authorities are taking every step to prevent the spreading of contagion, and the state board of health has been notified and will cooperate in every way possible, just as is being done in other cities where cases have been discovered.

While there is no cause for alarm, no needless chances should be taken and large gatherings of children should not be permitted. Those parents will be wise for the time being who keep their children at home or in their own respective neighborhoods. After ten days or two weeks have passed the contagion will go with it, and with proper methods of disinfecting and fumigating it is very unlikely that there will be any spreading of the disease.

Mr. Hughes Talks Straight

Anyone who has reason to doubt the courage of Charles E. Hughes and his willingness to meet any issue should read the candidate's address made at Nashville, Tenn., Monday night. Mr. Hughes went into "the enemy's country" where he traveled to Nashville when he is said that no other Republican candidate for the presidency has ever made an address. Without referring to the Adamson bill in so many words, Mr. Hughes declared unequivocally for the principle of arbitrating of industrial disputes as a matter of fairness both to labor and to capital.

The candidate evidently believes that the new law was forced thru congress and said that this great country can have a future and be preserved only thru honest fair investigation of disputes and candid treatment afterward. "Show me the way that is right and I will take it," said, "but I will not take any way that I do not know anything about. I am opposed to being dictated to either in the executive department by

INVITATION TO AUTUMN.

Come, gentle Fall! Imperial Autumn, come! Heat long endured has knocked us out of plumb; sagged in the back and wabbly in the knees, humbly we beg a breath of Autumn breeze. Long have we watched the red hot days drag by, panting and sick beneath a well-done sky; as people long, when Winter has its fling, long for the glow and genial warmth of Spring, so do we yearn, our backs against the wall, yearn for your chill, O life-preserving Fall! Bring on your frost, regardless of expense! Bid Summer quit, bid heat go humphing hence! Wilted we stand, a weary, washed-out band, hoping that snow will come and hide the land, muttering low, amid the endless heat, "Fall, when you come, bring forty kinds of sleet! Let every gust be born of arctic snows, freeze all our ears, put chilblains in our toes! Cover our spinach with a coat of rime, let us be cold, for three months at a time!" Let us repeat, ere heat hath made us dumb, Come, gentle Fall, imperial Autumn, come!

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

September 5, 1768—Lieutenant Colonel John Wilkins succeeded Colonel John Reed as commander of the Illinois country.

any power on earth before the facts are known." This strong direct statement from Mr. Hughes will challenge the attention of the whole nation. It is singularly in accord with the sentiment of an editorial in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat which is printed on this same page.

Wilson and the Embargo.

Mr. Roosevelt gives a graphic account of how Mr. Wilson has continued his mind on the subject of permitting arms and ammunition to go into Mexico. In August, 1913, Mr. Wilson announced in his message to Congress that he would not permit arms to go in and established the embargo. On Feb. 2, 1914 he changed his mind and raised the embargo. A couple of hundred American soldiers, sailors and civilians were killed or wounded during the next two months. On April 23, Mr. Wilson changed his mind again and restored the embargo. "But on May 15, he changed his mind again and the embargo was lifted so far as shipments to Tampico and other Mexican ports were concerned." On Sept. 9, the embargo was lifted everywhere. "On Oct. 29, 1915, when all of the factions had been amply supplied," Mr. Wilson changed his mind again and restored the embargo. Mr. Roosevelt continues: "On October 29, last, therefore Mr. Wilson specifically permitted arms to be sent to the same Carranza who, in the month of September, thirty days previous, on four specific occasions, invaded American territory and butchered American citizens, mutilating them before or after death. On the date when this embargo was thus raised, the names of 276 Americans who had been murdered had been officially placed on file. How many others had been murdered cannot at the present be told."

A Blow to Labor.

St. Louis Globe.—It is a coincidence that the greatest blow ever struck at organized labor fell on the threshold of the day devoted to the honor of labor. For they who look beyond the glamour of the circumstances of the moment can see that the action of Congress on Saturday in the compulsory passage of the eight-hour bill was against and not for the interests of labor. They can see that labor is harmed and not helped by a cowed Congress and a humiliated nation. The interests of labor are essentially the interests of the whole people. The land should bring prosperity in the land should bring prosperity in equal proportion to those who work with their hands and those who work with their heads. Labor is entitled to its share, and the public is in sympathy with all fair and legitimate measures for its acquirement. By its own efforts, but supported by this sympathy, and by laws born of this sympathy, labor in this country has advanced farther and accomplished more than it has in any other country in the world. With that sympathy it can continue to advance. But without it will inevitably fail and fall. Let the public once become impressed with the belief that the aims and acts of organized labor are inimical to the general interest, its sympathy will turn to enmity and its support to opposition.

The cowardly and unparliamentary act of Congress in the passage of the eight-hour bill without investigation or deliberation is an abject surrender of the paramount rights of sovereignty. If any organization, it matters not what its character, can for its own interest compel the Congress of the United States to bend its knees and pass laws for the benefit of that interest, without consideration of the merits of its legislation, then the end of free and independent government in the United States is near. We would do the brotherhood no injustice. So far as we are informed they made no demand upon Congress. But their purpose, their power and their presence became under the circumstances a force to which the president and Congress ignominiously yielded. That force and that weakness are elements of the utmost danger to the republic, and the people once awakened to that danger are not likely to be tender in the application of remedies. Whatever organized labor may think of the eight-hour bill, it cannot afford to approve the manner of its passage.

ERROR IN ADVERTISEMENT

Thru a typographical error in the advertisement of Judge E. P. Brockhouse, candidate for nomination for state's attorney on the Democratic ticket, it appeared in the Journal Sunday morning that Judge Brockhouse is a graduate of "the Illinois Law School." The advertisement should have read "a graduate of Illinois college and Harvard Law school." Judge Brockhouse is undoubtedly proud of the fact that he finished his law course at Harvard, one of the foremost institutions in the country. Furthermore, his record there was such that after the first two years he was awarded a scholarship. The Harvard school has an especially large number of men among its alumni who have made good in their law work.

ROODHOUSE DEFEATS MURRAYVILLE.

Roodhouse won the third game of the five game series with Murrayville Sunday. The final score was 11 to 5. Murrayville made fourteen errors. Clark, Denny and Christopher played with Roodhouse and DeFries played with Murrayville. Clark had his hand injured by a foul tip and probably will be out of the game for the remainder of the season.

R. R. Turner and E. W. Geschwindner of Mt. Sterling were visitors in the city Sunday.

MANY GATHERED FOR FUNERAL OF LATE LEONARD W. CHAMBERS

Services Held at Residence Monday Morning—Dr. A. B. Morey Paid Tribute to Deceased as Useful Citizen.

Funeral services in memory of the late Leonard W. Chambers were held Monday morning at 10 o'clock from the family home, 839 West State street. The services which were largely attended by the friends of the family, were of a simple impressive nature well in accord with Mr. Chambers' character and disposition. Dr. A. B. Morey, long Mr. Chambers' pastor, read various passages of Scripture and Dr. E. S. Hayden offered the prayer. Then Dr. Morey made brief remarks, attesting from his intimate knowledge the strength and forcefulness of Mr. Chambers' life. The minister said:

A Good Citizen's Life.

"When a good business man is taken from the city, he leaves memories which we delight to cherish and influences which live long after him. The life of any good citizen is a present and permanent good. It is helpful to all who are true. It gives hope to the old who are soon to enter their work to other hands. It gives wisdom to the young, calling them to noble lives and guiding them in every manly endeavor. This is specially true when the life has been made up within the common bounds and out of ordinary material, so that it can stand as a pattern for other lives. This is of greater service if the life has been seen day by day, as dead has been joined to deed, where principle and purpose and effort and result could all be seen and studied."

"Our recollection and affection for our brother from whom we part today leads us to think of him in the light of a true man. And I am glad and grateful when I say that I am giving you the expression to the prevailing sentiment in our community."

"He learned obedience to the law of right in his boyhood and with it he made his manhood strong. His was the soul of honor. His nature was large and his principles were free, but you knew where to find him. He loved truth the better because it was old. What we call conservatism, it is better in him to call truthfulness, loyalty to the right, the unalterable right. He was one man. He had his home, his business, his society, but he was the same man in all, the Christian gentleman."

Faithful in All Things.

"For we cannot confine our thoughts of the life we are describing to his business. They reach away beyond trade and money making. A good man may be a merchant, but he must be more. His business may be large, but his life must be larger. Mr. Chambers had his peculiar duties to his father and mother while they were here. He had sacred obligations to those who bear his name and looked to him for support and counsel. He had duties to our city whose interest he was always trying to build up, heading our charity enterprises, and while postmaster, finding in that public place an opportunity of becoming acquainted with the needs of the poor. In all these broad relationships of his life he was found faithful, proving that a good life is not paint, nor a line, but a circle, whose circumference encloses many different duties and honors and privileges. Above all, it takes in the source of all good, a reverent obedience to God. Mr. Chambers' sense of honor, which he so fondly cherished, brought him to God. He knew his weakness, his failures, his faults. In simple truthfulness he confessed them and sought the mercy of his Heavenly Father. In early life he stood before men in the church and made confession of his faith in Christ and joined himself to others of like character and purpose. He sought what help the church had to give and gave what the church sought which he had to give. He did not say much about it, but what he did say was with the power of a true man behind it. The winds of doubt and trial and temptation passed over as over others, and sometimes the sea was rough. Yet he went on steadily and safely."

"But the divine part of this life is its distinctive feature, the author of our brother's faith and hope and charity is divine. He bowed at the images with his gold and frankincense. He knelt at the cross with his faith and penitence. He stood at the open sepulcher with his love and his life. He went prepared unto the place prepared. Therefore, while we are sad, the voice from out of the skies is saying, "Blessed, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they are not dead; they rest." They have passed from their business. Their works do follow them. We speak our loving praise, we whisper our sorrow, we strain our eyes to look up the glittering path and thru the radiant door into the glory and honor and immortality which are forever."

"I wish to pay this grateful tribute to all good business men, who make us all their debtors, as they keep society alive, uphold government, found schools, build churches, send missionaries thru all lands—I have revered them as a boy and as a man and lived upon their bounty."

At the close of this deservingly tribute, Dr. Morey offered a prayer and his words concluded the service at the home. Thence the body was taken to Diamond Grove cemetery for interment. The service there was very simple. Dr. Morey reading the scripture and Dr. Hayden offering a prayer. The many floral emblems were cared for by Mrs. E. P. Kirby, Mrs. Thomas Worthington, Mrs. Walter Avers, Mrs. J. H. McCune, and Miss Eleanor Moore. The bearers were Messrs. C. H. Russell, Walter Ayers, E. E. Crabtree, Edward M. Dunlap, S. A. Fairbank and Albert G. Burr. Among the many who attended the services were a number of postal employees.

BOARD OF EDUCATION HELD MONTHLY MEETING MONDAY

Several Appointments Made to Fill Vacancies—Prof. Springgate Resigns—Will Hear From Board of Health Before Postponing School Opening.

The board of education met in regular session last evening and transacted a variety of business. The matter of carrying the warrants is to be let out to the lowest bidder, each bank in the city to have an opportunity to bid and the matter to be decided at an adjourned meeting at five p. m. today. Receipts from various sources were reported by Member Hopper; Misses Mary Mayer and Catharine LaVelle were appointed teachers to replace Mrs. Atkinson and Miss Hayden, resigned. The superintendent and committee on teachers were appointed a committee to fill the vacancy caused by Prof. Springgate's resignation. Some new text books were adopted.

A communication from Dr. A. M. King, health warden regarding infantile paralysis was read and action on deferring the opening of the public schools was deferred till communication can be had with the state superintendent of health. Supt. Perrin was authorized to put in practice a system of cadet training for would be teachers. Henry Summers, sexton of Diamond Grove cemetery, was permitted to send his children to the public schools free of charge.

The board met in regular session with all members present, President Lippincott in the chair. After the minutes of the last regular meeting had been read and approved Member Rogerson for the finance committee reported the election bills approved to be $737.05 and he suggested that no bills be paid till funds were available. It had at first been the intention to pay the bills with anticipation warrants on the city treasurer but it had been suggested that some banks would want to offer bids for a low rate of interest on which they would carry the overdraft or anticipation warrant. Accordingly an opportunity had been given all the banks to bid but Monday being a holiday only two bids had been received so the matter was deferred till five p. m. today to which time the board adjourned when it is supposed bids will be in from all the banks.

For the building and grounds committee Member Hopper reported that they had sold seats amounting to $74.00 from the 3rd and 4th wards; had received $5.00 rent for high school auditorium; had trimmed and cleaned the trees in the wards; had repaired the walks at the Morton school building; had cleaned the cistern at the Lafayette building; had rearranged the seats in the auditorium of the David Prince building so they will be far more satisfactory to a large audience.

Miss Catharine LaVelle was appointed to fill a vacancy in the first ward and Miss Mary Bayer to fill one in the fourth. Richard C. Rufford was appointed to teach English and allied branches and to act as athletic coach.

The resignations of Miss Marie Atkinson, teacher in the first ward, and Miss Lois R. Hayden in the fourth were accepted with regret; also that of W. C. Springgate as teacher in the high school. The superintendent and committee on teachers were appointed a committee to secure a successor to Mr. Springgate. Supt. Perrin said he had been in telegraphic communication with a man who felt he would fill the bill if he could be secured. He was now a lieutenant in the army and would probably be released soon if he had not already been discharged. The gentleman was also able to lead the band and orchestra if desired and arrangements could be made. The committee on course of study recommended Greer's text book on cooking, Kins and Cooley on sewing and it was recommended that a suitable text book be selected on domestic science in the 8th grade. It was recommended that Davis and Lingham's book on Business English be adopted by the English department.

Delay in Opening School Suggested

A letter from Dr. Josephine Milligan was read. It stated that in several cities named the office of school nurse and truant officer has been successfully combined in one person. As the truant officer for the city had already been employed no action was taken. The president read a letter from Dr. A. M. King, health warden regarding the case of supposed infantile paralysis in the city and suggested deferring the opening of the schools. Supt. Perrin thought it advisable to have consultation with the state board of health. Dr. Black said Dr. King would seek the advice of the state board of health and be guided by it. The president, Superintendent and Members Black and Duncan were made a committee of investigation regarding the matter with power to act.

In the matter of bids from banks to carry warrants, Member Black said he had conferred with State Superintendent Blair regarding three different ways of managing the matter and all had been approved. He thought it would be a good scheme to draw warrant at the end of the month for the entire amount of approved bills, that warrant to draw interest as agreed, place the sum to the credit of the treasurer and let the warrants to individuals be charged to it.

Member Rogerson thought the city would save a little interest by letting each warrant stand separately as some would be carried a while before being presented while the other plan interest would be paid on the whole from the beginning of each month.

J. Donald Frazier has returned to his home in Mt. Sterling after a pleasant visit with friends in Jacksonville.

Misses Laura Leggett and Ruth Ornellas have returned from St. Louis where they visited Mrs. E. J. Funk, who accompanied them back to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Howden have returned from a 150 mile trip in their Dodge car during which time they visited relatives in Christian county.

Mrs. Charles Seymour and little granddaughter Cleta Winn have gone to St. Louis for a week's visit with relatives.

Miss Effie Epler has returned from a sojourn delightfully enjoyed in Mackinac, Charlevoix, Harbor Point and other well known resorts and comes home greatly improved by her outing.

At the M. E. church in Merritt there will be a grand fish and chicken fry. Thursday of this week beginning at four p. m. Ample preparations are being made and a general good time may be expected.

J. E. Rife and brother, David H. Rife, both of Concord, are seriously considering removing to this city and are looking for a small property for residence. They are worthy, industrious men and will make a desirable addition to the population of Jacksonville should they locate here.

CHANGES IN FACULTY AT ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Carl F. L. Jessen Will Take Place of Mrs. Colean, Away on Year's Leave—New Director of Physical Training.

There will be six new teachers this year at Illinois Woman's college in the faculty of thirty-seven instructors. Already the teachers are returning from their vacations or from schools for special study and soon college will be ready to assume its wonted winter activity. Registration will begin Monday, Sept. 18 and September 20 will be the last registration day. Class work will begin at 8 o'clock Thursday morning, Sept. 21.

Dr. Joseph R. Harker left Monday for a brief business visit to several central Illinois cities, to which he expects to spend the greater part of the week attending the sessions of Illinois Methodist Episcopal conference, at Springfield. Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Stearns arrived Monday noon from Chicago. They have spent the summer in Minneapolis where Mr. Stearns engaged in special music study.

The College of Music has the following changes and additions to its faculty to announce for the coming year. Mrs. Matilda Colean is taking a year's leave of absence which she will spend in study and further preparation for her teaching. Her place will be filled by Mr. Carl F. L. Jessen, concert pianist and teacher. Mr. Jessen is a graduate and post-graduate of the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago, where he studied piano with Allen Spencer and the theoretical branches with Adolf Weldig. He holds the Conservatory gold medal for excellence in piano playing and is a brilliant pianist. His first appearance in Jacksonville will occur shortly after the beginning of the college year and will doubtless be one of the outstanding musical events of the year. For the past year Mr. Jessen has taught a large private class in Marquette, Mich., and is a teacher of wide experience.

Additions to the faculty are as follows:

Miss Edith Robinson, teacher of piano, and Miss Myrtle Sheppard, children's classes and teacher of piano. In these two teachers the College of Music feels that it has made important additions to its teaching strength. Both of them are graduates of the College of Music and both of them have done extended study since graduation. Both of them have had wide experience in teaching and are well known as successful teachers of piano in Jacksonville. Previous to coming to the College of Music Miss Robinson was on the faculty of the Loothborow School in Oak Park, where she had charge of the children's classes and the Caruthers Normal work.

Mrs. C. Ellen Money who is a graduate of Cornell college, will take the place of Miss Dorothea Washburn, who was recently married. Mrs. Money has done special work in the University of Denver and the University of Chicago.

Miss Leicht will remain in charge of the home economic department for next year. Miss Cora E. Swingle has been engaged as assistant. Miss Swingle is a graduate of the Kansas Agricultural college and of Columbia university. She has done work at the Pratt institute and the University of Michigan.

With the completion of the new gymnasium the department of physical training is expected to have one of the most successful years in the history of the college. Miss Katherine K. Frisbie has been secured as director. She is a graduate of Elmira college and of the Battle Creek Normal School of Physical Education.

Two additions have been made to the department of expression, of which Miss Mabel Louise Gleckler was director. Miss Gleckler will be succeeded by Miss Margaret Constance and Miss Millicent E. Rowe will be instructor. Miss Rowe has had thorough training and broad experience and needs no introduction in Jacksonville, her home city. After completing Illinois Woman's college she took work under Leland Powers in Boston.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

The body of Mrs. Charlotte Files will be sent this forenoon to Hadley, Ill. Friends may view the remains until 9 o'clock at Gillham's undertaking parlors. Mrs. Barnett, daughter of the deceased, arrived from Colorado Monday morning.

The funeral of Charles Grannison, shot Saturday afternoon at the home of Albert Ponutain on South Fayette street, will be held at the Second Christian church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will be made in Jacksonville cemetery.

COUNCIL MET AND ADJOURNED

The city council met Monday morning at 10 o'clock with all members present except Mayor Rodgers. The clerk called the roll and a motion was made to adjourn which carried.

OFF FOR THE NORTH.

This morning Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Frazer and children expect to start in their Buick car for a trip through the northern part of the state including Gibson City, Sanwich and other points. They expect to be absent a number of days.

Mrs. A. C. Metcalf and son, George, will leave today for Danville to make a visit of a week.

CASE OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS CAUSES LOCAL WORRY

Child Brought From Chicago Has Disease—Dr. King, City Health Physician Asks State Board to Investigate Case—Children's Picnic Postponed.

As the result of the discovery of a case of infantile paralysis at the home of Earl Butcher, 424 North East street, that residence and the home of Mrs. Anders, 219 East Court street, are under quarantine. Frances Chuse, a child twenty months old, is ill with the disease. Mrs. Fannie Ross, grandmother of the child, brought her from Chicago Saturday and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Butcher. Mrs. Ross says that at the station in Chicago there were inspectors who were examining the children but for some reason they did not stop her and the little girl was not examined.

Sunday the child showed signs of sickness and Dr. J. M. Wolfe was called. He diagnosed the disease as infantile paralysis and notified Dr. A. M. King, city health physician, who confirmed the diagnosis. The police department was notified and the chief of police placed the Butcher home under quarantine. Later it was found that Mr. Butcher had taken his four children to the home of Mrs. Anders on East Court street, so that residence was also placed under quarantine. There are ten or twelve persons there as Mrs. Anders has a number of boarders.

Board of Health Notified. Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Ross and Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Ross, who also came from Chicago and were at the Butcher home, were thoroughly disinfected and were permitted to return to Chicago. The board of health rules permit adults who have been exposed to move about after disinfection. Dr. King yesterday sent a communication to the board of education advising them not to open the public schools for twelve to fourteen days until the period of incubation has passed, and it is definitely known that the disease has not spread.

Dr. King has notified the state board of health and a special representative of the board will be here within a day or two to examine the child but Mrs. Wolfe and King both state that the case is of a pronounced type and there is, therefore, little probability of such good news as a statement from the board of health that an error in diagnosis has been made.

Suggests Picnic Postponement. As will be noticed below, Dr. King has also suggested to S. W. Nichols the advisability of postponing the burgoon picnic that he had arranged for children of the city. The health physician's letter on this subject was as follows:

Mr. S. W. Nichols, Jacksonville, Ill.

Dear Sir:

We understand that you contemplate giving a public picnic to the children of Jacksonville. As city health physician I most earnestly urge you to postpone the same for two weeks or more, as a case diagnosed as infantile paralysis is in our midst and endangers our whole community. If an exposed child should attend the gathering we little know what an awful calamity might befall us. The secretary of the state board of health has promised to send an expert here within a day or two and if a mistake in diagnosis has been made (which will be very pleasing) you can then mature your plans for the picnic, which I know the children will most heartily enjoy.

Respectfully yours, A. M. King, City Health Physician.

Supt. Gillett Seeks Information.

Supt. C. P. Gillett of the State School for the Deaf has been somewhat disturbed about possibilities of the disease affecting the school and some days ago wrote to the state board of administration asking for their suggestion. The state school for the deaf opens this year Oct. 4, and Supt. Gillett is rather of the opinion that it will not be wise to receive the smaller children at that date. Many of them come from Chicago and others from various parts of the state. The reply from the board has not yet been received but Mr. Gillett will use every precaution for the safety of the children at the state school.

MATRIMONIAL

Wester-Henderson.

Miss Miriam E. Henderson and Hubert Wester, both of the Concord neighborhood, were married at the parsonage of the Christian church at Havana Saturday night by Rev. Mr. Lucas, pastor of the church. The young people were attended by Mrs. Lillian Stroh of Kilbourne and Frank Willard of Concord. The bride is the daughter of S. M. Henderson, a long time and well known resident of the Concord neighborhood. Mr. Wester is a prosperous young farmer and he and his wife will begin house-keeping on the farm of C. F. Meyer in the Concord neighborhood. Both of these young people hold a high place in the esteem of their friends and begin their married life under very happy circumstances.

TO MAKE WESTERN VISIT.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Shuff and daughter, Miss Stella Shuff will leave today for Hardin, Montana, for a month's visit with their daughter, Mrs. John L. Waddell. After their visit there they expect to make a trip thru Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska.

MORTUARY

Turley.

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Turley took place early Sunday morning at the home of Howard Turley, her son, near Arenzville. Mrs. Turley had been ill for several months. She was born Jan. 1, 1822 and hence was 94 years of age.

Mrs. Turley spent the greater part of her life in Morgan county. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Ogle and Feb. 14, 1839, she was married to John Turley of the Grace Chapel neighborhood. To them were born twelve children, eight of whom survive the mother. There are five sons, Howard and Cyrus Turley, Douglas Turley of Grace Chapel, Felix Turley near Franklin and Charles Turley residing in Montana. The living daughters are Mrs. Jane Morrison of Arenzville, Mrs. Eva Streator of Iowa and Abbie, wife of Patrick Quinn of Exeter. Mrs. Alice Munson of Tina, Mo., is a sister of the deceased. Mrs. Turley had membership in the Methodist church and was by all esteemed a woman of Christian grace and true devotion.

The funeral will be held this forenoon at 10:30 o'clock at the Grace Chapel church. Burial will be made in Arcadia cemetery.

Corbridge.

Lauretta June Corbridge, 4 days old, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Corbridge, 719 North Main street, died Sunday night at 10:45 o'clock. Burial was made Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Jacksonville cemetery.

WRIT OF HABEAS

CORPUS ISSUED. Attorney John M. Butler went to Springfield Monday afternoon and secured a writ of habeas corpus from Judge James A. Creighton in behalf of Dr. J. U. Day. It is expected that a hearing will be had today before Judge Creighton when argument will be made to have the defendant released on bail.

VETERAN NEWSPAPER MAN

DIES AT A LOCAL HOSPITAL

H. N. Wheeler of Quincy Succumbed After Months of Illness—Long Prominent in Newspaper World.

H. N. Wheeler, veteran newspaper man and editor and proprietor of the Quincy Journal died at a local hospital at 7:30 a. m. Sunday. Mr. Wheeler has been failing in health for several months but his family did not become alarmed about his condition until his return from Europe last February where he had gone as a member of the Ford peace commission. During the summer he was kept from his office as much as possible in the hope that outdoor life and a rest from his strenuous work would enable him to recuperate. It was of no avail, however, and he gradually failed until death came. The remains were taken to Reynolds undertaking rooms and then shipped to Quincy.

Mr. Wheeler was born on a farm near St. Charles, Ill., March 30th, 1844. After leaving the farm and serving thruout the civil war in the Fifty Second Regiment volunteers he began his newspaper career in 1870 as the St. Charles correspondent of the Chicago Tribune under Joseph Medill.

Shortly afterward he and others bought a small country weekly, The St. Charles Transcript, the name of which was later changed to The Northern Granger and again later to The St. Charles Leader.

In 1878 Mr. Wheeler moved the Leader to Elgin, Illinois, where he sold it to his brother and it is now the Elgin Review. In 1880 he took editorial charge of the Pekin Times.

Went to Quincy in 1882

From Pekin he went to Quincy where he bought, edited and published for two years the Quincy Herald. In 1883 he sold the Herald and in September of the same year he brought out the first issue of the Quincy Journal which he owned and published at the time of his death.

Mr. Wheeler was one of the oldest if not the oldest active newspaper man in Illinois. It was during his early struggles that he met and made friends of such men as Joseph Medill, Melville Stone, now at the head of the Associated Press, Eugene Field and others who contributed much to the high ideals which Mr. Wheeler held thruout his long career in newspaper work.

A Strong Writer

He belonged to the old school of individual journalism where the personality of the editor shown forth from the editorial page. He wielded a strong and virile pen and his editorials were widely used thruout the central states. He was a man of strong likes and dislikes and an advanced thinker and one who never betrayed a friend. He was a hard fighter for the right as he saw it and a clear and forceful writer who used his newspapers to carry his thoughts and his ideals to his public.

Politically Mr. Wheeler was a democrat of the old school. He stood high in the councils of the party in this state and was always consulted in important matters pertaining to the party welfare. He fought for the principles of the party thru his newspapers and yet he did not hesitate to come out boldly and stand against its leaders if he thought they were wrong.

The death of Mr. Wheeler removes a man who was a credit to the profession which he so long followed and takes from Quincy one of its foremost and most progressive citizens. His career as a newspaper publisher and his life as a private citizen is one which might well be emulated by those of the younger generation.

An Ardent Democrat

Mr. Wheeler was an ardent supporter of President Wilson and was strongly in favor of the president's peace policy. Having been thru the civil war he knew war's horrors and his paper was ever a supporter of universal peace. So well did he become known for his stand for peace that he was selected as one of the Ford peace party which journeyed to Europe last winter. Mr. Wheeler, however, did not remain with the party but returned to this country. After his return he wrote a story of the trip which was a splendid piece of newspaper work.

He is survived by his widow and four children. Two sons, both newspaper men, J. Dean Wheeler of the Sioux City Journal, Sioux City, Iowa, and J. R. Wheeler recently of St. Paul, Minn., who is at present in charge of the Quincy Journal and two daughters, Miss Gladys and Miss M. Berenice Wheeler, the latter a student at Illinois College. The management of the Journal will continue in the family.

COLLEGE STUDENTS SEEK WORK

Several young men and young women who expect to attend Illinois college this fall are looking for opportunities to work in order to earn a part of their expenses. The boys will do work of almost any kind out of school hours and the girls will help in household duties. Persons interested should call President Rammlkamp, Ill. phone 454.

John Hoban, popular salesman at Tom Duffner's clothing store, is enjoying a vacation of a week with friends in Decatur.

GLEN JOHNSON WEDS WELL

KNOWN QUINCY GIRL

Ceremony Performed in Gem City Saturday—Will Live in Newton, Kansas.

The following account of Glen W. Johnson of this city and Miss Louise Leggett of Quincy is from a Quincy paper. Mr. Johnson, who took part of his training here in Y. M. C. A. physical culture work, has been promoted rapidly in profession.

Simple, but very pretty and impressive was the wedding of Miss Louise Leggett and Glen W. Johnson, which took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the home of the bride 827 Broadway. The marriage rites were read in the presence of about 30 relatives and friends by the Rev. W. D. Endres, pastor of the First Christian church.

The couple entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Mildred Carley, a cousin of the bride, and took their places in front of the bow window. The attendants were Miss Laurel Leggett, sister of the bride, and Abner Johnson, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride was very attractive in her wedding gown of white voile, trimmed with pink embroidered roses and a pink girdle. She carried a bouquet of white snap-dragons and ferns. Her sister was the picture of girlish loveliness in a dress of white net trimmed with pink ribbon and with a pink girdle. She carried pink snap-dragons and ferns.

Following the ceremony a three-course wedding supper was served in the dining room, the guests being seated at two long tables which were decorated with ferns and red pepper berries sent from California by Mrs. J. J. Williams. The chandeliers in all the rooms were decorated with asparagus greenery. Misses Edyth Lake, Edith Amen, Mildred Carley, and Daisy Couch, the latter from Hannibal, three friends and a cousin of the bride, served the supper. When the bride's cake was cut, the ring was secured by Kenneth Lewis, the dime by Donald Carley and the thimble by Charles W. Johnson.

When ascending the stairs to don her traveling costume the bride threw her bouquet to the girls in the hall, and it was caught by Miss Mildred Carley, which signifies that she is to be the next bride.

The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Leggett and is very popular among a large circle of friends, having been the guest of honor at several parties preceding her wedding. For several years she has been assistant bookkeeper for the Halbach-Schroeder company, having resigned several months ago to prepare for her wedding. Mr. Johnson came to Quincy last September and has been assistant physical director of the Y. M. C. A. where he is a favorite. He is a Jacksonville boy and a graduate of the High school and of Brown's business college of that city, and he has spent several summers in school at Lake Geneva. Both he and his bride have been active workers in the Sunday school and Christian Endeavor society of the First Christian church.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Johnson, parents and brother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Armstrong, also of Jacksonville, and uncle and aunt of Mr. Johnson, and Miss Daisy Crouch of Hannibal, an intimate friend of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left on the midnight train for Kansas City, where they will spend several days with relatives and then go on to their new home in Newton, Kansas, where Mr. Johnson was called as physical director in the Y. M. C. A. and also physical instructor in the High school. The bride traveled in a suit of black taffeta and black velvet hat. The couple were accompanied to the train by all of the wedding guests and a number of Y. M. C. A. friends of Mr. Johnson, who had guarded the house all evening to prevent possible escape without recognition. At the station and on the train Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were properly introduced to the passengers and they left the city with the hearty congratulations and best wishes of all their friends.

Lines from a Friend.

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Julia Smith, who passed away August 25, 1916.

"Meet me in Heaven," she said and smiled
To think her feet so nearly trod
The path that leads thru "gates ajar"
The path of light, to home and God.

'Twas a week ago, yet on my ear,
Her words, like sweetest music fell;
I bear them with me on my heart
Thru every scene of joy or ill.

Tonight, I see again the room,
Whence passed her sinless soul away;
I see the hectic of her cheek,
The lustre of her sparkling eyes.

'Tis all unchanged; the flowers she loved,
The hymn books, the music, all are here,
And friends, who weep to speak her name,
Are waiting still—But she's not here!

In yonder dell, a white cross stands,
Mid waving bows and flow'rets fair;
It is a spot of quiet rest,
And Holy peace—but she's not there.

Ah no! Not there, not here for us,
No more on earth, her smile so rare,
But when shall ope the pearly gates
Upon our view—she will be there.

ATTENDED NATIONAL

ENCAMPMENT

J. W. Galloway of Woodson was one of the Morgan county old soldiers who attended the national encampment of the G. A. R. at Kansas City. Mr. Galloway was a member of Company J of the 10th Illinois cavalry and saw active and honorable service during the war. He said yesterday that the parade of old veterans was the grandest sight that he had looked upon for many a year and one which filled all spectators anew with patriotic love for their country and made them feel how great is the debt that the people of the present day owe to the old soldier. The Kansas City papers said that there were at least 20,000 veterans in line and altogether the encampment was one of the most successful gatherings ever held in Kansas City.

THE GALLAUDET

CLUB PICNIC

The Gallaudet Club held its third picnic of the year on Labor Day at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Zimmer on the Mound road. A large number of deaf people were present with their little children, all of whom can hear and speak. The occasion was a very enjoyable one. The game of baseball was played and there were various other amusements. A number of deaf visitors from out of town were present.

GOOD GAME AT PARK LABOR DAY

JACKSONVILLE - MURRAYVILLE CLASH WON BY LOCALS

Patrick Holds Visitors to Three Hits
—Hartman Scores Winning Run
in Exciting Ninth Inning Finish—Brilliant Fielding Features Game.

Jacksonville evened the summer series with Murrayville at Nichols Park Labor Day by winning 4 to 3 in an exciting ninth inning finish. The winning run was scored by Hartman on Fernandes single after Hartman had sent Woodman home with a long double to left.

It was a game filled with brilliant fielding and the few errors were made most of them were costly.
Denny, DeFrates, Wheeler, and Mc-Collister played brilliant ball for the locals while Young, Ruble, C. Fanning and I. Fanning played good ball for Murrayville.

Patrick started the game for Jacksonville and despite the fact that he had not pitched a game in several weeks he held Murrayville to three hits and but for errors would not have been scored on. Patrick gave way to Hartman in the seventh and he held the Murrayville batters safe and made the hit that tied the score.

How the Runs Were Made

Jacksonville scored the first run in the first inning. After Denny had gone out Young to I. Fanning Fernandes singled to center, he stole second. DeFrates walked. He was caught napping off first and he chased Fernandes off the bag and he was tagged out between the base by C. Fanning. DeFrates took second on the play and scored when Wheeler singled to left.

The visitors made three runs in the fourth and looked to have the game on ice. After Young had gone out Denny, to Wheeler, I. Fanning singled and stole second. C. Fanning walked and scored on Doyle's long single. The throw from Mc-Collister got away from Christopher and C. Fanning scored. Doyle took second on the throw to the plate and went to third on Wright's infield out and scored on a passed ball.
The locals got two hits in the sixth but could not score. In the eighth Denny first up singled and took second on Fernandes safety. Both moved up when Wright hit DeFrates with the ball. With the bases full Wheeler was so anxious to hit the ball that he fouled out to Doyle. Mc-Collister laid down a sacrifice and Denny scored.

The locals won the game in the ninth. Woodman first up doubled down the left field foul line. Arisman sacrificed him to third. Hartman hit one a mile over McAllister's head in left and scored Woodman, reaching second on the hit.
Denny fled to C. Fanning. With two down Fernandes poled one to left field and Hartman scored the winning run.

PENNANT RACES DRAW TIGHTER

Chicago, Sept. 4.—The pennant races in the National and American leagues drew tighter today. Brooklyn was dethroned from the lead in the National by losing two games to Philadelphia, while Boston went in front on an even break with New York. Philadelphia moved up to a tie with the Dodgers for second place.
In the American league the clubs did not change their positions but Cleveland, by a double win over Cleveland moved closer to Boston, the margin of ten points now separating the two clubs.

A rude submarine craft which was launched and sank in the Chicago River in 1871, was called the Fool-killer. Its owner and namer perished with it.

HOSE OUTPLAY BROWNS AND TAKE BOTH GAMES

ST. LOUIS HITS INOPPORTUNELY IN FIRST GAME.

Second Contest is a Pitchers' Battle Between Benz and Plank, the Former Allowing but Three Hits and Striking out Ten Men.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 4.—Chicago outplayed St. Louis today, taking both games, the first 3 to 2 and the second 2 to 1. Altho St. Louis outhit Chicago 10 to 6 in the first the game came to an inopportune time.
The second was a pitchers' battle between Benz and Plank, the former allowing but three hits and striking out ten men, while the latter gave six hits.

JOHNNY KILBANE SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDS FEATHERWEIGHT TITLE

RINGSIDE, Cedar Points, O., Sept.
4.—Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, featherweight champion of the world successfully defended his title when, near the end of the third round of a scheduled 15-round bout here today he sent a crashing right hook to the jaw of George Chaney, the Baltimore challenger.

The champion's longer reach and greater defensive skill offset the spirited fight Chaney began with the sound of the first gong. The leads of the Baltimore lad were broken easily for the most part by Kilbane and the champion earned an even break in the first two rounds by his clever defensive tactics. It was not until the third that Kilbane cut loose and then he did so with a vengeance.
He rushed the challenger to the ropes with the opening of the round and drew blood with a left to Chaney's face. Four times the men clinched in the third and Chaney tried by a violent attack to the kidneys to weaken the champion. But Kilbane ran out easily from his attack and bidding his time swung over to the point of the challenger's chin a wallop that spelled knockout and victory.

Round one: After less than half a minute of sparring time was called because one of Kilbane's gloves broke. They resumed again at 5:06
p. m. Kilbane led with left to the face and followed in the next exchange with right to head. Chaney sent left to body and the round en-
body.

Round two: Kilbane opened the second round with a left to the jaw and cleverly sidestepped a left swing by Chaney. The men broke even on a fast mixup but just before the bell rang Kilbane shot a left to Chaney's jaw. Kilbane was using a left jab effectively while Chaney played for the jaw.

Round three: Chaney carried the fight into Kilbane's corner and Referee Hinkel three times broke clinches. Kilbane scored a left jab to the jaw at the end of the third but Chaney played successfully for the race. The knockout blow was a right hook to the jaw.

NEW LUBRICANT RESISTS HEAT PREVENTS RAPID SEDIMENTATION

Ordinary oil breaks down under the terrific heat of an automobile engine. Within a few hours, black sediment is formed which partially clogs-out the remaining liquid from the critical points where lubrication is most vital. Such under-supply of oil causes friction between the metal surfaces, intense heat, loss of power and expensive repairs.

The new lubricant that resists heat prevents rapid sedimentation, insures generous lubrication and, except where mechanical faults exist, prevents carbon.

Relative Oil Destruction
The contents of the bottles shown, illustrate the relative durability of ordinary oil and of Vedol the new lubricant that resists heat. Vedol deposits only a small fraction as much sediment as ordinary oils.
There is a fundamental difference between ordinary oils and Vedol. Ordinary oils are unstable and therefore unserviceable because of non-heat-resisting chemical structure.
Special processes of manufacture developed by this company and the use of Pennsylvania paraffine-base crude oil give Vedol, the new lubricant, its unusual chemical structure, and its remarkable heat-resisting ability.

INDIAN SIGN LANGUAGE.

Members of Every Different Tribe Can Read These Signals.

A white man who visits a foreign nation finds it hard and sometimes impossible to make his most ordinary wants known. The red man has no such difficulty. The problem of a universal language was solved centuries ago by the savage inhabitants of this western world.

Should an Indian from northern Alaska go to Patagonia he could by means of this universal language converse with his southern brethren almost as easily as he could with his neighbors at home. That would also be the case if he visited Central America or met the tribesmen of our own western prairies and mountains.

When this language was invented no one knows, but every Indian learns it in addition to his own. Recently two chiefs of different tribes met in the Geographical society rooms in Washington and held a conversation that lasted nearly three hours, and yet neither one knew a word of the other's language.

This universal language is, of course, made up of signs. For example, if an Indian is passing through a strange country and sees other Indians at a distance he makes the "peace sign"—that is, he holds up his blanket by two corners so that it covers his whole figure. The same thought is expressed by extending the hands, palms outward, slightly inclined from the face. Any Indian would understand either one of these signs.

Then there are the abstract signs by which these "savages" can express their thoughts with regard to the Great Spirit, heaven, good, evil, life and death, sickness, health, riches and poverty. Life is expressed by drawing an imaginary thread from the mouth and death by chopping this thread off. Another sign for death is to hold the tips of the fingers of one hand against the palm of the other and let them gradually slip downward and at last drop beneath the palm.

Most white people think that the Indian word of greeting, "How," is merely the abbreviation of the question, "How are you?" But that is not so. The word is really "au," which means "brother" or "friend." So when he comes up and greets out his seemingly inquisitive "How" he is not asking after your health, but telling you that he is a friend.—Youth's Companion.

Jutland and the Sea.

Jutland is one of the few countries where political change has been avoided. Denmark has looked after the Jutes for over 1,000 years without challenge. But the sea has refused to let Jutland alone. Like Holland, it needs the protection of dikes, and but for these there would be considerably less Jutland. Even on the east coast, with its higher elevation, the sea runs into many inlets. One of the longest of these, the Lyndford, was in 1825 broken into from the west by the waters of the North sea, and the north corner of Jutland has ever since remained an island.—London Chronicle.

Had His Title All Ready.

Disraeli's first novel affords a curious instance of intelligent anticipation. Among the host of characters in "Vivian Grey," most of them slightly veiled portraits of celebrities of the day. Lord Beaconsfield is one of the most important in the secondary rank. The novel was written in 1826, exactly fifty years before the writer assumed the title he had invented. It is usual for novelists to portray themselves in their first book, but no other instance can be found of an author christening a character with a name subsequent to become his own.—London Spectator.

Sheepskin.

Sheepskin was used as parchment before the invention of paper. Even then it was a substitute for vellum, which is made from calfskin and of a far finer quality than parchment, and was employed for fine illuminated work. Tanned sheepskins are in the trade called basils. For these there are many legitimate uses, but it is for imitation purposes that the sheepskin is most largely used.

WELSH RETAINS HIS LIGHT-WEIGHT TITLE

GOES FULL TWENTY ROUNDS WITH CHALLENGER WHITE.

Referee Roche Awards Welsh Decision on Points—Spectators Hurl Hundreds of Cushions at Referee Who is Rushed Away in an Automobile—Roche States He Gave Welsh Decision Because He did Most of the Leading.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 4.—Freddie Welsh retained his title of champion light-weight pugilist of the world today after going the full scheduled twenty rounds with Challenger Charley White of Chicago. Referee Billy Roche of New York awarded Welsh the decision on points.

As the gong sounded at the close of the twentieth round, Roche stood for several moments as if undecided. He then reached out towards the boxers and many spectators believed he was about to award a draw. Suddenly Welsh rushed over to Roche and placed his glove in the referee's hand and it was raised aloft while the official appeared to be reaching for White. The next instant jubilant friends of the champion swarmed in to the ring.

An unfortunate accident and unpleasant incident marred the beginning and end of the day's program. Shortly before 2 o'clock a portion of the bleachers on the south side of the arena collapsed. More than a hundred persons were more or less seriously injured.

When Referee Roche announced his decision in favor of Welsh the challenger's adherents appeared for the moment spellbound. Then began a fusillade of hundreds of cushions which were hurled from all directions at the referee. He was rushed thru the crowd by friends to a waiting automobile. Guarded by a policeman the vehicle was speeded up an unfrequented road to the hotel, while hundreds of men and boys ran after it until distant.

From a spectacular standpoint the battle was considered one of the poorest that has ever been fought for the highest ring honors in the light weight division. For fully two thirds of the time the fighters were locked in a succession of clinches and pushing each other back and forth about the ring. For this Welsh was largely to blame.

Through the entire twenty rounds scarcely a blow was struck by each man that did any damage. Of the blows exchanged White's carried the greater punitive power, while Welsh frequently was on the aggressive and did his share of the leading. It was noticeable that many of his blows fell short and failed to reach their mark.

Roche stated after the fight that he awarded Welsh the decision for the reason that he did most of the leading.

With consummate generalship, Welsh, thruout practically all the fighting worked with his back to the sun forcing White to face the hot glare. Neither man drew blood from his opponent and neither showed any particular evidence of having been in a championship battle. Welsh fought carefully and took no chances with his opponent's famous left hand. On several occasions when it appeared likely that it might land the champion was backing away so that the force of the blows were spent when they reached him.

As a rule he clinched in order to avoid punishment.

Round one: Welsh led twice with left to head and they went into a clinch. A series of clinches followed without any blows being struck. White landed left to head. White sent right to head and left to body and Welsh clinched. The men did not clinch, the crowd calling for them to break away. White sent left hook to stomach. Round even.

Round two: Welsh led with left to head and while blocking ran into another clinch. Welsh kept pounding White on the kidneys. In the clinches White sent two rights to head and body. The men were in a clinch most of the round. White doing the most effective work.

Round three: They ran into a clinch and wrestled about the ring. White sent right and left hooks to body, and repeated as Welsh missed left to head. Few clean blows were struck. Roche kept busy prying the men apart. Round even.

Round four: Again the men ran into a clinch. White missed left hook to head. White sent right and left hooks to body and had Welsh against the ropes. Welsh missed left to head. White countered with right to Welsh's ear. All the fighting had been in White's corner. White's round.

Round five: They fiddled for an opening and clinched. White blocked several short arm blows to body. Welsh keeps pounding the kidneys in the clinches and White's back is all red as the result. The champion is keeping close to the ropes with his back to the sun. White landed left to body. Round even.

Round six: Roche tried to keep the men from continual clinching. White rushed Welsh to ropes and landed right and lefts to body. He repeated. White sent left hook to ear. Welsh blocked left to head. They were in a clinch at the bell. White's round.

Round seven: White drove left hook to stomach. White sent rights to jaw and they clinched. Welsh sent left to chin. White sent right to chin and then to body. Shade for White.

Round eight: They continued their clinching. Welsh landed lightly to nose and clinched. Welsh tapped to nose lightly again. White sent several uppercuts to jaw as gong rang. Round even.

Round nine: They alternated between sparring for openings and running into clinches. Welsh blocked several blows as he backed toward the ropes. Welsh sent left to neck. White landed left to head. White's round.

Round ten: Welsh drove left to jaw. White sent right to head. White uppercut to stomach and followed with left hook to ear. White's round.

Round eleven: White sent left to head and Welsh drove right to nose rushing White back. The fighting has been practically even this far, what lead White had being only a shade. White roughed Welsh to head and body and the champion clinched. White's round.

Round thirteen: Both men worked hard for an opening. White sent hard right to jaw. Welsh's few blows seemed to lack steam. They were in the usual clinch when the round ended. White's round.

Round fourteen: White assumed the aggressive and landed right and left to body and head, and Welsh saved himself by clinching. A right to jaw forced Welsh to corner. White drove left twice to stomach. White landed right on cheek. White's round.

Round fifteen: White landed two rights to body and left to jaw and Welsh saved by clinching. Both men wrestled around the ring. Welsh being the greater offender. Even round.

Round sixteen: Welsh landed twice to nose with straight lefts and repeated to head. Welsh sent three left pokes to mouth in quick succession. It was Welsh's first round of the fight.

Round seventeen: Neither man has hurt the other and neither shows any marks of the contest. Welsh landed left to jaw. White drove right and left to body but Welsh blocked as he backed away. Even round.

Round eighteen: The crowd called to the men to fight instead of clinching all the time, neither man getting in a telling blow. White slammed right and left hooks to ears and again Welsh held to save. White's round.

Round nineteen: White drove a left hook to body. White played a tattoo on Welsh's face with short right jabs. The crowd roared its encouragement to White. White drove right and left to body and Welsh continued holding angrier him. White's round.

ARE MEDICINES LIQUORS

A certain class of pre-arranged and jealous doctors call patent medicines only alcoholic beverages. They will tell you that such and such a medicine contains as much alcohol as a glass of beer or a certain quantity of whiskey; but they do not mention that the beer or whiskey is swallowed at one draught, while only a small quantity of the medicine is taken at one dose. At the same time they will use alcohol quite as freely and many in four or five times as great proportions in their own prescriptions.

Such standard remedies as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound use barely enough alcohol to preserve the root and herb extracts, too little to have injurious effects; and the medicine can be had, if desired, in non-alcoholic form.—Adv.

HULL or LORIMERISM Which Does Illinois Want To Conduct Her Government?

On one side are the re-united Progressive Republicans under this able Statesman—Senator Morton D. Hull, now 49 years old, who for ten years has championed the people's welfare in the general assembly.

Opposing him now as always are—the "harmonized" Jackpot-Spoilsman—men who aided and profited in the Lorimer scandal, the Allen Bill graft and other disgraces, now plan to control Illinois under a new-day Tammany. Their candidate is Frank O. Lowden. Frank L. Smith, the third factor in the field, has slight chances. A vote for him would only help Lowden to lessen the hosts who are rallying to Hull.

So between these two—Hull and Lowden—rests the fate of a new Illinois. Their records are these:

When Hull was leading the valiant "Band of Hope" in securing Direct Primary elections that ended "Packed Conventions"—

When Senator Hull was helping to pass Anti-Graft Laws, the State Civil Service Law, the Protective Insurance Acts, the Anti-Loan Shark Acts, the Child Labor Law, the Public Utility Commission Act and other constructive measures—

When Hull was working for the 10 Hour Labor Law to protect working women, for the Workman's Compensation Act, the Occupational Diseases Act and other measures to better conditions of Labor—

Hull stands for the Hughes idea of government, Merit Rule, Social and Industrial Justice, Vigorous and Economical Administration and Opposition to Special Privilege—Back of Hull stand the elements who seek no special favors nor privileges in legislation or administration.

Lowden, Thompson and Lundin framed their deal on that May Sunday 1915 at Eagle Lake, Wisconsin—they signed it at Brewers Mills, Ontario, Canada, in August 1915, and they sealed and delivered it at Peoria April 1916. Here they foregathered in that famous all-night conference with the kindred spirits who joined them in forming the "Peoria Combine." Thus, Thompson became National Committeeman and Lowden gained the support of the evil influences that have fastened their grasp on Chicago institutions and plan to capture the government of Illinois.

Hull is supported in every community by the forward-looking progressive men and women who have fought special privilege. His candidacy has gained amazing strength. His nomination seems certain if the rank and file turn out and vote. But do not neglect to work for Hull, talk for Hull, and vote for Hull and a New Illinois.

Send us your name and address and we'll tell you how you can help make his victory sure.

HULL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE, Logan Hay, Secretary
124½ E. 6th St., Springfield, Ill. Chicago Address—Hotel Morrison

Lowden, as National Committeeman in 1912, was opposing direct presidential primaries against the will of the people.

Lowden was consorting with Lorimer-Lundin-Thompson-Cannon and the "old guard" reactionaries. He was helping Cannon to maintain gag rule in Congress. As National Committeeman in 1909 he gave his proxy to Lorimer, then under fire, to represent Illinois Republicans in the party management.

Lowden fought like measures in Congress. As Director of the Pullman Company he denied his employees a living wage. Pullman porters are paid $27.50 per month and are authorized to look to the public for tips to make up a living wage. (See the official report of the National Industrial Relations Committee and the Report of the Illinois State Public Utilities Commission.)

Lowden stands for the Cannon-Lundin-Lorimer-Thompson idea of government, of the "Peoria Combine," by the "Peoria Combine" and for the "Peoria Combine." Back of Lowden stand the elements who seek special privileges in legislation and administration—those who engineered the Allen Bill legislation, the bi-partisan organization, the Jack-Pot organization, the Lorimer election in the General Assembly.

New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves

No Odor No Smoke
No Ashes

Truly this is the housewife's idea of paradise. And those features are only a few of the many advantages of cooking with New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves.

No longer is it necessary for you to suffer from the intense heat of the wood or coal burning range long before you are ready to begin operations.

Just touch a match to the wick and your fire is ready when you want it.

You can have a slow fire or an exceedingly hot one; just as you wish.

You don't have to watch it either. The flame will not creep up or diminish.

The Long Blue Chimney

is the key to the efficiency of the New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves.

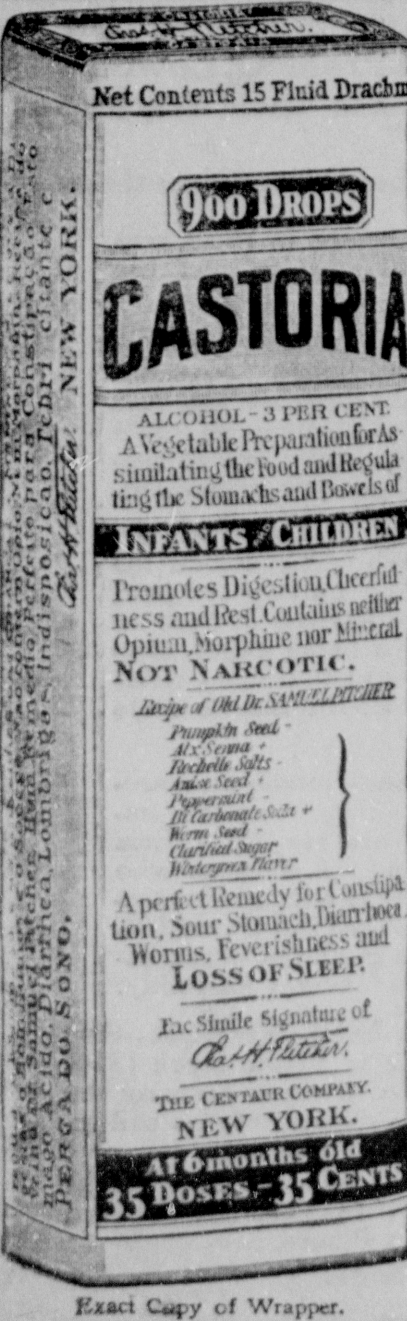

The flame never touches the bottom of the utensils. Every atom of oil is burned and converted into usable heat in the long blue chimney. No waste—no dirt—no odor. It makes your summer cooking easy.

Write for booklet giving full description and prices of the various types.

SPIKING THE GUNS.

When the Old Fashioned Muzzle Loading Cannon Were in Use.

Did you ever remark when you had cleverly blocked the game of your opponent that you had "spiked the guns for the enemy," and then did you wonder why you had thus characterized the action? That it signifies "to put the guns out of commission, so that the enemy is prevented from turning his fire upon us," is obvious. But what has the spike to do with it? In the modern breech loading cannon there is no kind of spiking that would do much damage to the enemy's guns. It is understood, of course, that this crippling of the foe is provided in advance, when our own guns are about to be captured. It is bad enough to be shot to pieces by the enemy's artillery, but it is doubly distressing to have our own turned upon us.

The old fashioned cannon was a muzzle loader, the powder and ball being introduced at the end opposite the breech. Just above the place where the charge of powder was located there was a hole in the cannon, so that a cap for discharging the powder could be introduced. This percussion cap was set off by means of a lanyard, which the artilleryman pulled. When it was certain that the cannon was going to be captured the hole for the introduction of the percussion cap was closed by means of a spike driven in, which would have to be drilled out before the gun could be used.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

ASIA MINOR.

Where Its Borders Lie is a Sort of Geographical Puzzle.

"Asia Minor" is a geographical term of vague extension. It would puzzle any one to say exactly where it leaves off.

The name dates only from the fifth century, A. D., when Orosius used it, evidently as a novelty. The Roman empire knew no Asia Minor. Indeed, the Roman province of "Asia" was actually smaller than this Lesser Asia. The alternative name Anatolia (land of the sunrise or east), which has found favor with the Turks, is equally indeterminate.

"The Levant," which means the same thing as Anatolia (region of the rising sun), is even vaguer in its geographical scope. It includes Constantinople and everything anywhere near the eastern Mediterranean.

Few geographical names have incurred more unfavorable association. "Levantine" morals, particularly in the matter of honesty, are a byword, as might be expected from such a jumble of people. Our words "levanter" and "to levant," on the other hand, testify to the fact that dishonesty is not unknown even in the west. They originate from the disappearance of men who could not pay their gambling or other debts and were reported to have gone to the east.—American Carpet and Upholstery Journal.

Ways of the Arab.

The Arab has some curious ways. He takes off his shoes when he enters a house, but keeps on his hat. He reads and writes from right to left. He eats scarcely anything for breakfast or dinner, but in the evening he sits down to a hot meal swimming in oil. His sons eat with him, but the ladies of the household wait till the males have finished. The Arab rides a donkey when traveling, his wife walking behind, and he laughs at the idea of giving up his seat for a woman. The Arab has one strong virtue, and that is, he is rarely seen drunk. He is not very affectionate, is very ignorant and has so little initiative that he rarely takes on anything worth doing or attempts to carry out any enterprise.

Hugo and Dumas.

During Victor Hugo's exile Dumas went to Guernsey, where Hugo received him kindly and took him to breakfast on a veranda overlooking the ocean. It did not take Dumas long to discover that Hugo was already posing as the proscribed prophet, and the poet said, with an Olympian wave of his hand, "You see me, my dear Dumas, on my rock of exile like the proscribed one of antiquity."

"Never mind," said Dumas, with his mouth full. "The butter is far better here than in Paris. There is no disputing that."

SOME FARM TOPICS

Expert Says Fertilizer Must Be Used Permanently

Dr. Cyril G. Hopkins, of the Department of Soil Fertility at the University of Illinois gets many inquiries from farmers in regard to the use and abuse of fertilizers.

One Illinois farmer writes: "I am much interested in the use of ground limestone and rock phosphate, but what I want to know is whether, if I begin using them on my land, I shall be obliged to keep on using them? I know this is the report that many farmers make who have had experience with fertilizers in the East before they came to this state, and some of them say, never begin using fertilizers or you'll have to keep it up and finally ruin your land."

In reply to this, Dr. Hopkins says that one must keep on applying limestone and phosphate in just the same sense that he must keep on turning under clover and manure. If one does nothing to his soil but crop it, it will finally wear out. If he begins a permanent system of soil improvement and then stops making any applications and keeps on renewing crops, his soil will also wear out in time.

"No merchant can expect to put in a stock of goods from which he can sell always with no replenishment of his stock, and there is no practical way in which one can put enough fertility into his soil at one time to last always."

Mills Handling Corn Find Oil Valuable By-Product

It is surprising to many to know that a bushel of corn contains about two and one-half pints of oil but such is nevertheless the case. Corn oil when well made is a beautiful clear light-colored oil about the consistency of olive oil and like it can be used to make delicious salads. It is on the market under its own name and probably a great deal under the name of salad oil. In these days of pure food laws we see fewer cases of other oils being sold as olive oil. Under the name of salad oils clean, nutritious oils are made either unadorned or blended with other oils at a price much less than olive oil. So far the manufacture of corn oil has not been valuable enough to warrant the production of a very high oil strain commercially; as a by-product from the mills handling corn it is a very valuable source of income.—Professor A. W. Jamison, University of Illinois.

Good Advice on How to Control the Hessian Fly

There are two effective and practical ways to control Hessian fly. One is to kill all the fly in the stubble and in volunteer wheat before they can hatch and lay their eggs in the grain. The other is to destroy the volunteer wheat and delay seeding so that most of the flies will have ceased laying eggs by the time the wheat is up.

The best way to kill the Hessian fly in the stubble where it exists in the pupa stage, is to plow early and at least four or five inches deep. If the ground is then worked down with a disk, the ground above packed so firmly that very few of them will be able to get to the surface.

Burning the stubble also kills the few Hessian flies above ground, but probably does not kill the majority which are below the surface. Since burning destroys the organic matter in the stubble, and does not destroy a very large percent of the Hessian flies, it cannot be recommended as a general practice. Early deep plowing, to be fully effective, must be practiced by the entire neighborhood, and must include all infested fields since the flies sometimes migrate considerable distances. As it is usually impractical to plow all fields in a neighborhood early and deep, the only way to insure safety from the fly is to avoid early seeding. It is also necessary to destroy the volunteer wheat which starts before the fly-free date, since it may become infested, carry the flies thru the winter, and infest the fields in the spring.—Kansas State Agricultural Experiment Station.

AITKEN WINS THREE HUNDRED MILE SWEEPSTAKE AT CINCINNATI

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 4.—Johnny Aitken won the three hundred mile sweepstake by three laps from Wilbur D'Alene. Aitken's time was 3:05.

Aitken assumed a lead over Dario Resta at the 168th mile of the 300 miles sweepstakes. Wilbur D'Alene was second while Frank Calvin, far behind, drew down third money. Aitken's time for the race was 3 hours, 5 minutes, 27 seconds, an average of 97.06 miles per hour.

One accident marred the day's sport, Gilbert Anderson while in the stretch run on the 168th skidded and dived into the fence. His car turned turtle and he was dangerously injured. His mechanic, Bert Shields, suffered a fracture of the thigh and internal injuries and his recovery is doubtful.

Ralph DePalma broke a connecting rod on the fourteenth mile and had to retire. Numerous other starters had engine and tire trouble and were forced to retire. Resta was third up to the 294th mile when he encountered engine trouble and had to quit the race.

Mrs. Roy Hopper and baby have returned from Springfield where they visited in the home of John L. Profit.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed bids will be received for the construction of the improvement of the roadway on South Clay avenue from the south line of East Morton avenue to the south line of Superior avenue, by the Board of Local Improvements of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, until Thursday, Sept. 14th, 1916, at the hour of 11 o'clock a. m. at its office in the City Hall, in said City of Jacksonville, Illinois, at which time and place said bids will be publicly opened.

The estimate of the items by quantity constituting the said improvement are as follows:

4,125 sq. yds. tarvia macadam wearing surface, 3 inches in thickness on a 5 inch concrete base, composed of 1 part Portland cement, 3 parts sand and 6 parts crushed stone, with a sand finish, complete in place.

910 cu. yds. excavating, rolling and preparing sub base.

2,500 lin. ft. sandstone curb, 5 inches in thickness, 18 inches in depth, complete in place.

87 lin. ft. marginal limestone header, complete in place.

2 brick catch basins with cast iron tops.

2 cast iron inlets, to be connected to catch basins.

40 lin. ft. 10 inch vitrified sewer pipe, in place, connecting catch basins with sewers and inlets to catch basins.

Said improvement shall be constructed and made in accordance with the ordinance providing for the same and the maps, plans, profiles and specifications for the same on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city.

Proposals must be made on blanks furnished by said Board and in compliance with the instructions thereto, attached, which can be had on application to the city engineer, and must be accompanied by cash or by check payable to the order of the President of said Board of Local Improvements in his official capacity, certified by a responsible bank, for an amount not less than 10 per cent of the total amount of the bid.

The contractor shall be paid in cash and bonds, the bonds to bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum.

No bid will be received unless the party offering it shall furnish evidence satisfactory to said Board of Local Improvements that he has the necessary facilities, ability and pecuniary resources to fulfill the conditions of the contract, and execute the work should the contract be awarded to him.

Bidders will examine the ordinance, maps, plans, plans, profiles and specifications, and also the locality in which said work is to be done, and judge for themselves of all the circumstances and surrounding conditions affecting the cost and nature of the work.

The Board of Local Improvements reserves the right to reject any and all bids, as authorized by law.

Dated at Jacksonville, Illinois, this 4th day of Sept., 1916.

ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENCE

Tokio, Aug.—A sentence of penal servitude for life has been imposed on the two ring-leaders of the bomb attempt on the life of Premier Okuma on January 12. The aged prime minister was returning to his home in an automobile following a reception to Grand Duke Michaelovitch of Russia, when men hidden in a by-way rushed out and hurled two explosive machines. The car was damaged but Count Okuma escaped unhurt.

Those sentenced for life were Wagoro Fukuda, a former journalist and Umataro Shimomura, occupation unknown. Two accomplices, Jujiro Onikura and Masakichi Wada and Takushi Hida, were acquitted.

The trial of the case brought out that a wide-sweeping plot existed for the assassination of leading personages in the political world of Japan.

Seoul, Korea, Aug.—Governor General Count Terauchi has been promoted by Emperor Yoshihito to the rank of Field Marshal in the Japanese army.

Havana, Cuba, Aug.—The Cuban Congress, which has practically ended its active sessions, has achieved hardly any serious legislation. There have been many weeks when a quorum was not present, and the few sessions recently held have been devoted to such bills as seemed likely to be vetoed by the president. One such was to compel the president to divest himself of his functions of office sixty-five days before election, which the president vetoed, and another was to provide for the payment of claims of soldiers and civilians in connection with the revolution of 1895, which the president has indicated his intention to veto in case it passes the senate.

It appears probable that Congress while not transacting any business, will remain theoretically in session until after the elections in November. The reason is that the members hold, by a curious interpretation of the constitution, that their congressional immunity from arrest extends to all civil and criminal offenses so long as the body remains in session. Representatives of British interests in Mexico are here for the purpose, it is said, of influencing the passage of legislation for the admission of petroleum into Cuba free of duty. As Congress is unlikely to transact any business until the election is over, it is improbable that there will be any discussion of the proposition until the next session.

Paris, August 28.—Some American volunteers—mostly married men—have recently sought the help of the American authorities in Paris to free themselves from the military obligations they contracted in the French Foreign Legion or French aviation corps. The authorities have had in all cases to explain that it is impossible for them to intervene. The American volunteer who takes service as a belligerent against a country in friendly relations with his own loses the right to the protection his country would be bound to give him if he had not identified himself with a belligerent. He does not lose his American citizenship, but it is so far non-existent for the time being that its possessor does not recover the rights and privileges it confers until the war ends.

The American legionary or aviator who the French forces does not swear allegiance to France; he only signs a declaration binding him to obey the French military authorities. The American who volunteers with the British army is in a different position for he has to swear allegiance to King George.

London, August—Orders for 26,000,000 pairs of shoes for the British, Serbian, French, Russian, Italian and Belgian armies have been received by British manufacturers since the outbreak of the war.

One fourth of the total, or more than 100,000 pairs a week have been alone supplied by the workmen of Northampton, the chief seat of the English shoe manufacture, an hour's train ride northwest of London. The manufacturers of this place are turning out a second installment of 3,000,000 pairs of footwear for the Russians, this time boots known as the Cossacks.

Owing partly to their pre-occupation with army contracts, partly to depletion of their staffs of male operatives, and partly to restrictions imposed by the government on the disposal by tanners and merchants of leather suitable for army purposes, boot and shoe manufacturers are finding considerable difficulty in supplying the demands of the civilian market.

Paris, August—At Meaux, near the point where in the battle of the Marne von Kluck's army turned away abruptly when approaching Paris, a committee has been formed to organize the reception of battlefield visitors. Guideposts are to be set up showing the way and the distances to those localities where the fighting was fiercest and most decisive. Memorial tablets at various points will commemorate the fallen warriors, and a plan of the Marne theatre of operations will be sold as a souvenir of the great battle.

Washington—Deposits in postal savings banks of the United States increased more than 51 per cent in the year following the outbreak of the European war. At the close of 1915 fiscal year deposits aggregated $65,684,708, and depositors numbered 525,414 making an average of more than $125 for each depositor. The Postal Savings System was inaugurated January 3, 1911 under Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock of Massachusetts and at the close of that fiscal year the average of each depositor was more than $56. At the close of 1912 the average had increased to $89. In 1913 it was $102 and in 1914 the average increased to $111.

Athens, Greece, August 28.—The epidemic of infantile paralysis in New York is rivalled by an epidemic of small pox in Athens that is taking a heavy toll of both children and adults in the city proper and in Piraeus, the Port of Athens. Incidentally, Greek ships arriving from Alexandria report the spread of the bubonic plague in Egypt, and cholera has broken out in the island of Castelloriza, due to the arrival of refugees from Asia Minor. A quarantine has been established between the island and the ports of Greece.

The epidemic of small pox in Athens has resulted in compulsory vaccination or re-vaccination, but it is difficult to carry out the orders as the supply of vaccine is limited, and the movement of the demobilized troops into the interior makes it difficult to combat the spread of the disease.

The remarkable feature of the epidemic is the reliance that is being placed upon the efficacy of one of the sacred ikons, or images of Christ, the ikon of St. Barbara of Nicomedia, in Asia Minor, has been brought with every pomp and circumstance from the ancient church of the convent of Daphni, near Athens, and set up in the church of Chrysospliotissa in the quarter where the small pox is taking its heaviest toll.

All morning, during the transportation of the holy ikon the bells of every church in Athens and the Piraeus tolled at regular intervals. The procession crept, afoot, along the sun-parched road that for five miles lies shadeless across the Attic plain—the ancient "sacred way", so graphically described by Chateaubriand. The black robes of the priests were slowly whitened by the dust and little streams of sweat made irregular lines down the gray faces of those who formed the cortege bearing the sacred image.

The belief in the efficacy of the ikon of Saint Barbara is very profound among the simpler Greeks. Especially is this true of the artillerymen and firemen, whose patron saint, St. Barbara, is, not only in Greece, but in other countries as well, where her day is celebrated on December fourth. St. Barbara was a virgin martyred in 235 A. D. during the persecutions which characterized the brief reign of the Roman Emperor Maximian; or, according to another version, her head was cut off by her own father, who had failed to persuade her to renounce Christianity, in the year 206, under the Emperor Galerius.

Still further evidence of the belief in the power of ikons was seen in the preparations for the annual pilgrimage to the shrine of the virgin of Tinos, which was made on August 29. It is a belief current among the ordinary Greeks that the virgin saved the life of King Constantine I., last year when he hovered between life and death after an operation at the hands of two famous German surgeons. At a time when hope had practically been given up it was decided to bring the sacred ikon of the virgin of Tinos to the bedside of the sovereign. All along the entire route peasants gathered and knelt at the roadside as the sacred image passed; and a minister in the ante chamber of the royal palace marked on a special map the progress of the procession, while outside the palace thousands of humble Greeks gathered, many weeping with hysterical emotion.

Finally the image arrived and was set up in the bedroom of the monarch. According to the Greek peasant, from that moment the King's life was saved.

The image of the virgin of Tinos, was then returned to its shrine on the top of a mountain whither, every year, come tens of thousands of the devout of the Greek church, much as French Catholics visit the shrine of Lourdes.

The 12,000 inhabitants of the island of Tinos have a total income of $100,000 per annum from the yearly pilgrimage which is over in one day.

APPLE TREES IN BLOOM

A winter apple tree on the farm of R. R. Long in the vicinity of Markham has a large number of blossoms on it. The tree didn't have many apples on it this year and seem to have been drawn out by the warm, damp weather to make a second attempt.

Miss Clara Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clement arrived home yesterday from an extended journey embracing Colorado Springs, Colorado, Manitou, Denver and other points among the Rockies.

FOR THE INFORMATION OF THE PUBLIC:

The Railroads' statement of their position on the threatened strike, as presented to the President of the United States

A strike on all the railroads of the country has been called by the Train Brotherhoods for 7 o'clock Monday morning, September 4.

This strike was ordered from Washington while the President of the United States was making every effort to avert the disaster.

The Final Railroad Proposal

The final proposal made by the railroads for a peaceful settlement of the controversy, but which was rejected by the brotherhoods, was as follows:

(a) The railroads will, effective September 1, 1916, keep the time of all men represented in this movement, upon an 8 hour basis and by separate account, monthly, with each man, maintain a record of the difference between the money actually earned by him on the present basis and the amount that would have been earned upon an 8 hour basis—overtime on each basis to be computed pro rata.

The amounts so shown will be subject to the decision of the Commission, provided for in Paragraph (c) of this memorandum and payable in money, as may be directed by said Commission in its findings and decision.

(b) The Interstate Commerce Commission to supervise the keeping of these accounts and report the increased cost of the 8 hour basis, after such period of actual experience as their judgment approves or the President may fix, not, however, less than three months.

(c) In view of the far-reaching consequences of the declaration made by the President, accepting the 8 hour day, not only upon the railroads and the classes of labor involved directly in this controversy, but to the public and upon all industry, it seems plain that before the existing conditions are changed, the whole subject in so far as it affects the railroads and their employees, should be investigated and determined by a Commission to be appointed by the President, of such standing as to compel attention and respect to its findings. The judgment of such a Commission would be a helpful basis for adjustments with labor and such legislation as intelligent public opinion, so informed, might demand.

Statement of Executives to the President

In submitting this proposal to the President, the fifty railroad executives called to Washington and representing all the great arteries of traffic, made this statement to him of their convictions:

The demands in this controversy have not been presented, in our judgment, for the purpose of fixing a definite daily period of labor, nor a reduction in the existing hours of labor or change in methods of operation, but for the real purpose of accomplishing an increase in wages of approximately One Hundred Million Dollars per annum, or 35 per cent. for the men in railroad freight train and yard service represented by the labor organizations in this matter.

After careful examination of the facts and patient and continuous consultation with the Conference Committee of Managers, and among ourselves, we have reached a clear understanding of the magnitude of the questions, and of the serious consequences to the railroads and to the public, involved in the decision of them.

Trustees for the Public

As trustees for the public served by our lines and for the great mass of the less powerful employees (not less than 80 per cent. of the whole number) interested in the railroad wage fund—as trustees also for the millions of people that have invested their savings and capital in the bonds and stock of these properties, and who through the saving banks, trust companies and insurance companies, are vitally interested to the extent of millions of dollars, in the integrity and solvency of the railroads of the country, we cannot in conscience surrender without a hearing, the principle involved, nor undertake to transfer the enormous cost that will result to the transportation of the commerce of the country.

The eight-hour day without punitive overtime involves an annual increase, approximately, in the aggregate of Sixty Millions of Dollars, and an increase of more than 20 per cent. in the pay of the men, already the most highly paid in the transportation service.

The ultimate cost to the railroads of an admission in this manner of the principle under contention cannot now be estimated, the effect upon the efficiency of the transportation of the country now already under severe test under the tide of business now moving, and at a time when more, instead of less, effort is required for the public welfare, would be harmful beyond calculation.

The widespread effect upon the industries of the country as a whole is beyond measure or appraisal at this time, and we agree with the insistent and widespread public concern over the gravity of the situation and the consequences of a surrender by the railroads in this emergency.

In like manner we are deeply impressed with the sense of our responsibility to maintain and keep open the arteries of transportation, which carry the life blood of the commerce of the country, and of the consequences that will flow from even temporary interruption of service over the railroads, but the issues presented have been raised above and beyond the social and monetary questions involved, and the responsibility for the consequences that may arise will rest upon those that provoke it.

Public Investigation Urged

The questions involved are in our respectful judgment, eminently suitable for the calm investigation and decision by the public through the agency of fair arbitration, and cannot be disposed of, to the public satisfaction, in any other manner.

The decision of a Commission or Board of Arbitration, having the public confidence, will be accepted by the public, and the social and financial rearrangements made necessary thereby will be undertaken by the public, but in no less deliberate nor orderly manner.

The railroads of the country cannot under present conditions assume this enormous increase in their expenses. If imposed upon them, it would involve many in early financial embarrassment and bankruptcy and imperil the power of all to maintain their credit and the integrity of their securities.

The immediate increase in cost, followed by other increases that would be inevitable, would substantially appropriate the present purchasing power of the railroads and disable them from expanding and improving their facilities and equipment, to keep abreast of the demands of the country for efficient transportation service.

In good faith we have worked continuously and earnestly in a sincere effort to solve the problem in justice to all the parties at interest. These efforts were still in progress when the issuance of the strike order showed them to be unavailing.

Problem Threatens Democracy Itself

The strike, if it comes, will be forced upon the country by the best paid class of laborers in the world, at a time when the country has the greatest need for transportation efficiency.

The problem presented is not that alone of the railroad or business world, but involving democracy itself, and sharply presents the question whether any group of citizens should be allowed to possess the power to imperil the life of the country by conspiring to block the arteries of commerce.

YOUNG GIRL DIES AS RESULT OF CRIMINAL OPERATION

Dr. J. Ulysses Day Held on Order of Coroner's Jury—Girl Made Signed Statement Before Her Death.

Dr. J. Ulysses Day is held in the county jail without bond charged with performing a criminal operation upon Rose Carr, 16 years old, telephone operator who died at Passavant hospital Sunday morning at 3 o'clock.

Dr. King was called to see the girl and advised that she be removed to the hospital. There he made an examination and found the girl to be suffering from peritonitis. He called Drs. Black and Reir in consultation as a precautionary measure.

Coroner's Verdict

After the death of the girl Coroner George W. Wright was summoned and took charge of the body. He empaneled a jury and with the assistance of State Attorney W. N. Hairgrove held an inquest in the circuit court room Monday morning. After hearing the evidence the jury which was composed of W. H. Dalton, foreman, J. W. McGinnis, S. W. Karmichael, D. T. Summers, Michael Schneider and John W. Priest, clerk, returned the following verdict:

"We, the undersigned jurors, sworn to inquire into the death of Rose Carr, on oath do find that she came to her death as the result of general peritonitis following an abortion. We further find that Dr. J. U. Day, according to the evidence produced at the inquest, is guilty of performing a criminal operation on the deceased for the purpose of producing an abortion and recommend that he be held to await the action of the grand jury. We further recommend that he be released pending such action on a reasonable bond."

Death Statement Made

Prior to her death the girl made a dying statement in which she said that Dr. J. Ulysses Day was the one who performed the operation. The statement of the girl follows:

"Sept. 2, 1916.
"I, Rose Carr, believe that I am dying and hereby make dying statement to the effect that Dr. J. U. Day, of Jacksonville, Illinois, produced an abortion upon me within the last few days which is the cause of my illness.

"Rose Carr X.
"This cross is my signature."
Witness. "Charlotte I. Hazen.
"Titania Ruebel."

After the jury had rendered the verdict a warrant was issued by Coroner Wright and was served by Deputy Sheriff Harry Norris. Dr. Day and his attorney John M. Butler appeared before the sheriff Monday afternoon and offered to give bond in the sum of $10,000. The sheriff informed Dr. Day and his attorney that he could not accept the bond as the state's attorney would not agree to it. The only manner in which Dr. Day can now be released is on a writ of habeas corpus.

The following witnesses were examined: Drs. Reid, Black, and King; Miss Helen Carr, Mrs. Elizabeth Carr, Mrs. Charlotte Hazen and Miss Titania Ruebel.

Dr. Reid said that he saw Rose Carr just once which was on the morning of Sept. 2. Dr. Reid said he took her pulse and examined her abdomen. Witness also said he asked her what other doctor she had been to before she had Dr. King. The girl said, "The other Dr. Day, the Portuguese doctor." Dr. Reid said her pulse was rapid and her general condition and appearance such as to indicate that she had peritonitis.

Dead Girl's Sister Testifies

Helen Carr, sister of the girl, testified that she was at Dr. J. U. Day's office with her sister last Tuesday at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Witness said that Dr. Day gave her some medicine and told her to go back home and go to bed, and that she had gotten up too soon. Witness said Dr. Day was at the house last Wednesday and gave Rose a hypodermic and some medicine at that time. Witness also said that her sister worked at the Illinois Telephone at night and she worked there in day time. She said she and her sister were together all the time when they were not at work and she had never known her to be with men. Witness said her sister never told her who was responsible for her condition.

Dr. Carl E. Black said he saw Rose Carr at Passavant hospital Saturday morning, Sept. 2. Dr. Black said he made a general physical examination of the heart, pulse and abdomen. Her pulse was small and weak, her extremities cold and clammy and her facial expression that of one suffering from general peritonitis. Witness said girl at first told him she had stomach trouble. Later she told witness is he would put his ear down close she would tell him. She then told she had had an abortion operation performed and that the doctor was J. U. Day. Dr. Black said she did not use the exact words but that the statement to him could have but the one meaning.

Taken to Hospital Friday

Mrs. Elizabeth Carr, mother of the girl, said that her daughter was taken sick last Thursday and that Dr. J. U. Day was called and said she had stomach trouble. She had gone to his office with her sister on last Tuesday and when they returned Rose was in such pain that she was screaming. The neighbors came in and assisted in putting her to bed. Witness said they sent for the doctor and he said she was suffering with her stomach which was very bad. He said for her to lie still and she would be all right after awhile. Rose was removed to the hospital Friday by order of Dr. King.

Witness said her daughter never told her that Dr. Day performed an operation for abortion.

Dr. A. M. King testified that he was called to see Rose Carr last Friday afternoon. She was ill at that time and after an outward examination told her she ought to go to the hospital. Dr. King said he examined the girl three times before she died. Witness said dead girl's sister came to him for some medicine and he told her he could not give her medicine until he knew what was the matter with her. Dr. King told of the girl telling him of her visit to Dr. J. U. Day's office and that he had performed an operation. Dr. King said the girl didn't say abortion but the language she used meant that to him. Witness then said he told Dr. Reid and Dr. Black about the case and asked them to talk to the girl as he did not wish to have the case on his hands without some protection. I told her Saturday night that she would have to die. She said, I will ask you once more. Won't you save me? Witness said he told her if possible he would save her but that she must die and would not be alive in the morning. Dr. King then told of asking the girl to make a dying statement which she agreed to do. The nurses brought paper and ink and the statement was made. At the close witness said the girl was too weak to write her name but made a cross on the paper by her name which was witnessed by the nurses.

Nurses Give Testimony

Charlotte Hazen, night supervisor at Passavant hospital, testified that she had charge of Rose Carr while on duty. She identified the statement shown her as that made by Rose Carr before her death. Titania Ruebel testified she was a nurse at Passavant hospital and had charge of Rose Carr from 7 o'clock Saturday morning until 10 o'clock Saturday night. She identified that statement as that made by Rose Carr and that she had signed it as a witness.

The verdict of the jury was as given above.

BIG LABOR DAY CROWD AT BEARDSTOWN CELEBRATION

Jacksonville Sent Fine Delegation Headed by Jeffries Band—Addresses Made by John J. Reeve and Others.

While not as large a crowd went on the Labor Day excursion to Beardstown as was expected about 300 made the trip and the promoters more than cleared expenses on the train.

The train was run over the C. P. & St. L. to Virginia and from Virginia to Beardstown over the B. & O. Representatives of every union in Jacksonville made the trip. The Jeffries band accompanied the Jacksonville delegation. At Beardstown the Jacksonville delegation and band was given the position of honor at the head of the parade followed by the Beardstown band and the unions of that city. The parade was a fine one and contained many floats.

In addition to the parade there was a baby show and other features of the entertainment including a ball game between Beardstown and Taylorville.

At 1:30 o'clock in Central park Judge Detrick of Beardstown delivered an address of welcome and acted as chairman of the day. Addresses were given by Hon. John J. Reeve of this city and H. G. Russell, superintendent of schools of Beardstown.

The excursion train left Beardstown promptly at 8 o'clock and arrived in Jacksonville about 9:45 o'clock. The crowd was a well behaved one and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the day and local labor people were well pleased with the treatment accorded them.

In addition to those who went on the train a large number of citizens made the trip to Beardstown by automobile. The crowd was one of the largest that Beardstown has ever entertained.

JURY EXONERATES

CAMPLIN WOMAN.

The coroner's jury to investigate the death of Charles Grannison who was shot by Oleta Camplin Saturday afternoon, returned a verdict Sunday morning exonerating the woman. The testimony of Oleta Camplin and Leonora Fountain was heard by the jury and was substantially as their statements appearing in Sunday's Journal. The jury was composed of Charles L. Starks, foreman; David Short, George Coffman, Robert Brannan, E. M. Harlis and Walter Woodson.

Harold Coverly has gone to Beardstown for a visit with friends.

SMALL FORCES CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Managers Claim Nomination for State Treasurer by Large Majority.

A statement has been issued from the campaign headquarters of Len Small of Kankakee, Illinois, regarding the race of Mr. Small for the Republican nomination for state treasurer, claiming that Mr. Small will carry the state by an overwhelming majority. His managers are confidently claiming that he will win out in at least ninety out of the one hundred and two counties in Illinois. They are making an unqualified claim that he will carry Chicago and Cook county by an overwhelming majority.

Clean Campaign.

For the last seven weeks Len Small has been conducting a clean-cut, popular campaign for this nomination. He has made the appeal on the basis of his faithful allegiance to the Republican party, on his record in private business affairs, and his experience in the public service. His friends are claiming for him that his training and experience make him the most logical and most satisfactory candidate for the Republican nomination for State Treasurer. He has been a banker of Kankakee for a number of years, and his bank is well known as a safe and conservative institution.

The campaign which Mr. Small has carried on has been free from vituperation. He has not criticized or attacked any of his opponents, but is making his campaign solely on the basis of his own fitness for the office which he seeks. Those who are promoting the candidacy claim that in every sense he represents the ideal public official, experienced, honest, clean and faithful.

INJURED BY RACING CAR.

J. H. Stillwell of the Asbury neighborhood was painfully injured Sunday evening about 9 o'clock when he was struck by an automobile. The accident happened about 4 miles east of the city on the Springfield road. Mr. Stillwell was taken to Passavant hospital where his injuries were dressed. His right hand was badly cut and some of the bones fractured and he was bruised about the body and head.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell and daughter had been to Springfield with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Day and family in a car to spend the day with relatives. When about four miles from Jacksonville they had a puncture. The automobile was driven to the side of the road and the puncture repaired. Mr. Stillwell was engaged in pumping up the tire when two cars came down the road racing. One of the cars struck Mr. Stillwell knocking him about ten feet. He was rendered unconscious for a time. The parties who were racing stopped and came back to offer any assistance they could. It is not thought that Mr. Stillwell's injuries will result seriously, the attending physician cannot tell yet whether there are any internal injuries.

SHOPS WILL OPEN TODAY

The C. P. & St. L. shops which closed Saturday evening for an indefinite period will be opened for work this morning with the full force of men. This statement was made by superintendent George W. Imgrund Monday evening. When the shops closed Saturday under orders from W. C. Hurst, general manager of the road, it was the impression that a general strike was inevitable. The passage of the eight hour law by the senate eliminated the danger and caused a rescinding of the strike order by the heads of the various brotherhoods of railway trainmen.

FRANKLIN LOSES AT BEARDSTOWN

Franklin lost a close game to Beardstown Sunday by a score of 2 to 1. Hartman pitched for Franklin and held Beardstown to four safeties and an error at a critical time lost him the game. The Franklin boys claim that the other Beardstown run came as the result of a bad decision by the umpire.
